PERSONAL PAPERS OF JUANITA ROBERTS

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Roberts, Juanita, 1913-1983

Biographical sketch:

Colonel Juanita Roberts, also known as Mary Juanita Duggan Roberts, served as one of the first officers of the Women's Army Corps. She later served as chief personal secretary to President Lyndon B. Johnson. She was one of the key organizers of the Johnson Presidential Library at the University of Texas, and later served on the Library's board of directors.

Scope and content note:

This collection contains photographs, correspondence, clippings, publications and printed material, invitations, military records, transcripts, certificates, memorandums, notes, schedules and itineraries, reports, souvenirs, and manuscripts collected by Juanita Roberts. The topics in the material reflect Roberts' job responsibilities as President Lyndon B. Johnson's chief personal secretary and include Presidential trips and travel, the President's inauguration, administrative records, personal and biographical information, and the Women's Army Corps. There are also notes and correspondence related to President Johnson's book, The Vantage Point, as well as correspondence with President Johnson.
