For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Schandler, Herbert Yale, 1928-2015

Biographical sketch:

Herber Y. Schandler was a soldier, educator, and national defense specialist, and author who retired as a Colonel from the U.S. Army, worked for the Congressional Research Service, and taught and was an administrator at the National Defense University.

Scope and content note:

This collection contains papers collected by Herbert Y. Schandler while preparing his book "The Unmaking of a President: Lyndon Johnson and Vietnam." They consist of transcripts of interviews and speeches, newspaper clippings, and publications related to the U.S. involvement in Vietnam. The book describes how the Vietnam War influenced Lyndon B. Johnson's decision to not run for reelection in 1968.
