PERSONAL PAPERS OF FRED BOHEN

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Bohen, Fred, 1937-2015

Biographical sketch:

Frederick M. Bohen (b. April 24, 1937, -d. March 15, 2015) served as an executive at Rockefeller University in New York City. His career in academic administration began at Princeton's Woodrow Wilson School in 1964. Public service took him to Washington, where he was on the White House domestic policy staff in the Johnson administration, and in the Carter administration at Health Education and Welfare and Health and Human Services. In the 1970s he twice ran as a Democratic candidate for Congress in New Jersey. Bohen resumed academic administration in the early 1980s, first at the University of Minnesota, then at Brown University, and finally at Rockefeller in 1990. Between stints in government and academia, he worked in public television and philanthropy at WNET and the Ford Foundation.

Scope and content note:

This collection consists of correspondence, reports, and newspaper clippings primarily related to Bohen's service on the domestic policy staff in the Johnson administration. The papers contain materials on the organization and staffing of the Federal Government, the Federal budget, taxes, economic policy, and the administration of Great Society programs.
