PERSONAL PAPERS OF ARTHUR "TEX" GOLDSCHMIDT

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Goldschmidt, Arthur E., 1910-2000

Biographical sketch:

Arthur E. Goldschmidt was a friend of President Lyndon B. Johnson. He worked for the Power Division of the Public Works Administration from 1938 to 1940 and the Department of the Interior from 1940 to 1950, serving as director of the Power Division from 1942 to 1949. He was director of technical assistance for the special fund operations of the United Nations from 1950 to 1967, and later a U.S. representative at the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) from 1967 to 1969, with the rank of ambassador.

Scope and content note:

This series consists of papers of Arthur E. ("Tex") Goldschmidt, a United Nations Ambassador, civil servant in electric power generation, and a long-time friend of Lyndon and Lady Bird Johnson. The papers contain social correspondence between Goldschmidt and the Johnsons, as well as correspondence, reports, transcripts of meetings, and publications. The papers include materials on the Lower Colorado River Authority, power generation, the United Nations, civil rights, and foreign economic aid. The papers also contain some correspondence of influential social worker, and Goldschmidt's spouse, Elizabeth Wickenden.
