PERSONAL PAPERS OF JAKE JACOBSEN

For list of folder titles, see page 2

Creator: Jacobsen, Jake

Biographical sketch:

Jake Jacobsen was a lawyer originally from Atlantic City, New Jersey. He served in the Army Air Corps and Air Force as an officer and pilot, as well as Congressional Liaison Officer out of Air Force Headquarters. After receiving his law degree from the University of Texas, Jacobsen was a briefing attorney for the Texas Supreme Court, assistant attorney general, and executive attorney general under Price Daniel. Jacobsen served as legislative assistant to Daniel when he was elected to the Senate and as Chief of Staff for Daniel while he was Governor of Texas. Jacobsen joined President Lyndon B. Johnson's White House Staff in 1966 as a legislative assistant.

Scope and content note:

This collection consists of papers collected by Jake Jacobsen related to his service as a Democratic Party campaign worker and aide to President Lyndon B. Johnson. The papers include correspondence, financial documents, reports, and newspaper clippings about the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign in Texas and Jacobsen's professional activities as a White House aide. This series also includes social correspondence from Lyndon B. and Lady Bird Johnson.
