Dear Mr. Peterson:

I have been asked to acknowledge your letter of January 7th to the President in which you extended an invitation to him to be the speaker at the Fifty-First Annual Convention of Kiwanis International on Saturday, July 2d.

The President is very appreciative of this kind thought of him but he is unable to say this far ahead whether it would be possible for him to undertake a trip out to Oregon in early July to appear before the Kiwanis Convention. Actually, he has found he cannot safely project his schedule more than several months in advance and feels, therefore, you ought to proceed with your plans, not counting on his presence now. Then, if you would like to get in touch with him again around May 1 when he will be in a better position to know what his July calendar must be, he will be glad to hear from you further.

The President is grateful, too, for the kindness of Mr. Edward C. Keefe, President of Kiwanis International, in his willingness to bring details of this invitation to him or his staff on January 17th. Regrettably, the President's heavy schedule will not permit him the pleasure of receiving Mr. Keefe, but I will be glad to have him contact me while he is here if he wishes to do so.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator Douglas:

It gives me much pleasure to join your many friends who are paying tribute to you.

I regret that I cannot be present and I have asked Vice President Humphrey to deliver this letter to you personally.

In honoring you, your friends have chosen a deserving recipient. During your seventeen years of Senate service you have contributed greatly to the City of Chicago, to the State of Illinois and to this nation.

Because you recognized at an early date the problems engendered by the nation's massive move toward urbanization, you supported much legislation that has had direct application and benefit for the citizens of Chicago and Illinois.

All of the mass of legislation passed in the historic 89th Congress has direct effect on the people of Chicago. The education legislation will put $14 million into Cook County alone to aid schools. The Mass Transportation Bill will go far to relieve transportation problems created by urban and sub-urban development. Your tireless support of the Anti-Poverty Bill and housing legislation will do much to renew and re-vitalize the downtown core area of the great city.

I also remember your early and unrelenting efforts to involve the Federal government in the partnership of the people of the local and city government for the more lasting solution to mutual problems.

These achievements, real and measurable though they may be, are only the surface of your service. Your dedication to purpose and quality of considered thought have made your nearly three terms of Senate service one of the most notable among the many noteworthy careers in that body.

I hope you will continue to serve the people of your state and of your nation.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator:

I am pleased to be sending you under separate cover a copy of the Proceedings of the White House Conference on Natural Beauty.

This 800 page book is a full transcript of all the sessions of that conference. You will find it a valuable document on many aspects of the problems of preserving and creating beauty in our environment. I commend it to you and your associates for review and reference.

There has been an encouraging wave of interest and action for the natural beauty of America since the White House Conference. The Congress passed the Highway Beautification Bill of 1965 which incorporated many of the conference's recommendations on that subject. The federal agencies have been constantly reviewing their programs to see what they can do to make a greater contribution.

More than twenty states have responded to my suggestion at the conclusion of our White House meeting that each state hold conferences on natural beauty. In cities and towns across the country, local groups have been responding.

I hope that this volume will spur increased interest and provide a valuable source of practical ideas and programs which we see through to implementation.

Sincerely,

Honorable Paul H. Douglas

Dear Senator:

Thank you for your letter of February 8 requesting information on the issuance of a proclamation designating [★]Negro History Week.

As a general rule, except in unusual circumstances, the President issues proclamations setting aside special days and weeks only when requested and authorized to do so by a Congressional Resolution. There have been isolated exceptions when the President has acted on the basis of action taken by only one House of the Congress when there was some particular time problem.

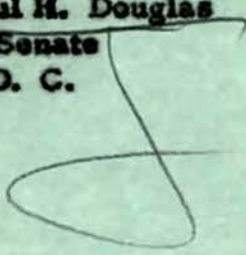

Your interest, and that of your constituents, is very much appreciated, and you may be sure that if an appropriate resolution is passed by the Congress in the future, the President will be pleased to comply.

Dear Bob:

(Bruce Dennis)
If I may impose on friendship to answer you both with the same letter, I'll save a few minutes. First of all, you've both been generous with kind words, for which I am grateful. And you both have been gracious enough to hope I can keep in touch with RTNDA -- and I do, too. I'm not going to be eager to accept many outside dates, but on the other hand I don't intend to dump my credentials from 35 years in the news field, and I think that from time to time I may make some contribution to professional matters. Or, at least, stir up some people.

As for the request for the President to appear at the Chicago convention, I think your channels are the best -- by fall, many of his dates will be scheduled around election campaigns, and Paul Douglas may well draw the President out your way. I'll try to put in a good word as the dates get nearer.

Meanwhile, work hard, be brave, and I'll do the same.

Forwarded by
Mrs. Noel Nolan
1354 North Sedgwick
Chicago, Illinois

Dear Mrs. Nolan:

Thank you very much for your message concerning the bombing of North Viet Nam.

As you may recall, last year in the period before the Christmas and New Year holidays, there was a great deal of discussion on the need for giving North Viet Nam another opportunity to agree to enter into negotiations on the Viet Nam question. It was felt by some that a cessation of the bombing of the North would be just the inducement needed. The President did call for such a cessation of the bombings and the result was the same as that experienced in the spring. Hanoi did not make any effort to come to the conference table. Instead, the interim was used to regroup North Vietnamese forces and to reorganize their supply lines to the South.

In January, the bombing attacks against the North were again authorized. But the President laid down specific limitations on such raids and specially defined targets were designated so that indiscriminate bombing of the urban areas of the North would be prohibited. We had the responsibility of making sure that our own troops in the field were not killed because of the build-up by Hanoi during the lull. And the forces infiltrating South Viet Nam have killed hundreds of people and terrorized the countryside.

The President has pledged that the United States is willing to enter into "unconditional discussions" on this whole question with North Viet Nam. He mentioned this again in his State of the Union Message in January. "We have also made it clear from Hanoi to New York that there are no arbitrary limits to our search for peace. We stand by the Geneva Agreements of 1954 and 1962. We will meet at any conference table. We will discuss any proposals - 4 points or 14 or 40 - and we will consider the views of any group. We will work for a cease fire now, or once discussions have begun."

Dear Senator:

Your letter with the attached request concerning the invitation to the President to attend the 100th Anniversary Commemoration of the birth of Anne Sullivan in Washington on April 17th and 18th arrived this morning. I regret to inform you that it will be impossible for the President to attend the memorial service at the National Cathedral or to preside over a ceremony at the White House on April 18th. Because of your interest in this matter, we would like to be able to accept, however, an extremely heavy official schedule plus several expected meetings during that time will make it impossible for the President to participate in the Commemoration.

The second attachment, concerning the interest of a delegation from the Champaign Community Schools to attend the May convention on the International Cooperation Year is a matter which is being handled directly by the State Department. MEMORANDUM FOR JIM MOYERS

FROM: Mike Manatos

Everett
It seems to me the President's participation in the Dirksen Appreciation Committee State-wide Dinner would be hurtful to Senator Douglas. Looking back no one can argue that the President has been more than generous with Senator Dirksen in many, many ways and to expect him to go one step beyond what he has already done might be a little too much.

Dear Mr. Manatos:

We are preparing a brochure for the campaign and, as you can understand, our campaign suffers from that ailment of all campaigns: each project must be completed before noon, by tomorrow the latest.

Could you assist us with one of our needs? -- pictures of Senator Douglas with President Johnson, any and all will be greatly appreciated. Obviously, close-ups and those of the two men together or near each other are vital. One specific shot which interests us is that of the signing of the Civil Rights bill.

Any and all your efforts will be greatly appreciated. As you know, the Senator is on the Mexico City trip. Otherwise, I would have him write the letter personally.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Senator:

This is in response to your letter of April 11, 1966, enclosing a letter from Mrs. Roberta R. Gross, requesting, on behalf of the American Artists Professional League, Inc., that the President issue a proclamation for American Art Week.

It has been White House practice to issue proclamations calling for special observances only on the basis of a specific Congressional resolution or long-standing precedent. Numerous celebrations of this nature are sponsored each year by national or State organizations, societies, and groups. If a Presidential proclamation were to be issued in this particular case, it would be difficult to deny subsequent requests for similar proclamations.

As you know, the President has on several occasions expressed his support and encouragement of the arts in America. In the event a resolution is passed by the Congress requesting the designation of an American Art Week, you can be certain its purposes will be sympathetically viewed here.

With thanks and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Harry

Mr. President:

You will remember that you had a call from Governor Johnson of Mississippi. Governor Bryant talked to Governor Johnson who said he hoped you could come to a meeting in Mississippi Saturday, April 30, if you are in Texas at that time. The meeting is between representatives of Mexico and the State of Mississippi for the purpose of promoting trade between the two.

I explained to Governor Bryant that you plan to return to Washington tomorrow night and he is relaying this information to Governor Johnson.

Otto x
Governor Kerner of Illinois called for you at 7:00 o'clock tonight but talked to me. His question is on the interstate highway. He insists that he, Senator Paul Douglas, Senator Everett Dirksen, Mayor Daley, John and several Congressmen are much in favor of the relocation of the highway which Mayor Daley has spoken to you about.

Governor Kerner said after talking with Alan Boyd today, he believes Boyd will give a wrong opinion tomorrow. He further said this is the only thing he has ever called about and it is the most important thing he could call about.

I checked with Jack Valenti and Joe Califano who have done some staff work on this subject. They suggested that I talk directly to Alan Boyd which I have done tonight.

Mr. Boyd believes that the decision now contemplated by Bureau of Roads is correct. He states that this interstate system has been under planning and construction for some ten years and that during this time, there has not been a change in the basic concept. He says it goes from city to city in the most direct route. He says to do what Governor Kerner suggests would mean an elbow of some 25 miles in the system. He had already asked the Attorney General to give a ruling as to whether it would even be legal to do as Governor Kerner has requested. Mr. Boyd and I are to visit on this again tomorrow.

MEMORANDUM FOR

Jack Valenti

In accordance with your memorandum, I have talked with Nick Katzenbach about the judgeships in Illinois. He said he would attempt to work out something in the Douglas Dirksen situation, but is apprehensive that this cannot be worked out until after the November election. He doesn't want to say that to ^{PAUL} Dirksen, but he doesn't think ^{PAUL} Douglas will agree to any Republican appointees at this time because it would hurt his situation in Illinois. However, Nick did promise he would make every effort to work this out as quickly as possible.

Congressman Rostenkowski believes that Senator Paul Douglas favors someone else.

Dear Senator ^xDouglas: Paul

In response to the recent request of your office, I am pleased to enclose a memorandum which explains the changes we have suggested in your Truth in Lending bill. The memorandum also discusses some of the problems which we foresee in the administration of the bill if it should be enacted. At the same time, the memorandum indicates that most of the objections that the provisions of your bill are unworkable can be met.

Our staff is working on tables which can be used to determine the annual percentage rate of finance charge, and I am quite hopeful that we can meet in advance some of the problems in administration that may arise. Please feel free to call on me for any additional explanatory materials you may wish.

Very truly yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Subject: AEC Accelerator site

You will recall that you told me to get in touch with Joe Califano and AEC Chairman Seaborg about the AEC Accelerator site. Seaborg, this afternoon, said:

- (1) the six sites (New York, California, Denver, Ann Arbor, Madison, Chicago) are equally good, and
- (2) timing is important to him, and he would like the selection and announcement to be made as early as June.

He fished around for some hint as to how you feel about it. I said you had not talked to me about it, but I felt certain that you would want the decision made on the merits. He said he appreciated my interest in the matter, because I might help him move the matter to an early decision. I answered that I didn't know enough about the merits to express an opinion on the question of timing, but would be available to him any time I could be helpful.

Joe Califano feels that the AEC should develop better cost figures, but this would not necessarily delay an announcement of the site.

Paul A.
Senator Douglas came over to me at the Chicago dinner last night and said that you wanted him, Seaborg and me to get together in my office. When the Senator called today, I suggested to him that he stay out of it for the moment, and not press for such a three-way meeting. He agreed to this.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LEVINSON

Subject: Truth-in-Lending alternatives

You asked for a brief description of the Douglas bill on truth-in-lending and possible options.

S. 2275, sponsored by Senator ^x Douglas, Paul has the following major features:

1. it requires most lenders providing consumer credit to furnish to prospective borrowers in advance specific written information on the cash or delivered price of the commodity or service purchased and the comprehensive finance charge (a) in dollars and cents, and (b) as a percentage "expressed as a simple annual rate on the periodic unpaid balance of the obligation";

2. it requires credit-sellers using revolving or open-end credit plans to provide in advance "the simple annual percentage rate or rates at which a finance charge will be imposed on the monthly balance"; and

3. it vests regulatory authority in the Federal Reserve Board.

Apart from differences over the location of the regulatory authority, the controversy has centered almost entirely on the insistence by Senator Douglas and consumer groups that disclosure of a "simple annual rate" is essential for informed use of consumer credit and the contention by various industry groups that such a rate is difficult if not impossible to provide with any degree of accuracy for certain types of credit, or is misleading or meaningless if provided.

At least three suggestions have been brought forward to resolve this type of problem.

1. Exemption of certain types of credit from the simple annual rate requirement. The Senate subcommittee print of September 1964 (on S. 750) watered down, if not removed, the annual rate requirement for revolving credit financing (that is, charge account). The retail installment credit industry the following winter urged that it likewise be made exempt, claiming that great administrative difficulties

Dear Mr. Califano:

Public Law 86-90 authorizes the President to issue a proclamation designating the third week in July as "Captive Nations Week." I feel that the observance of this week is of importance to all Americans, for it reminds us that totalitarian governments are today enslaving peoples who yearn to be free.

There are many Americans who trace their roots to Eastern Europe and to Cuba, and many of our citizens still have relatives trapped behind the iron curtain. I know that the President shares with these people the prayer that the people of the Captive Nations will one day know a re-birth of freedom.

I am inclosing with this letter a copy of the authorization for the proclamation of "Captive Nations Week," and I hope the President will renew his commitment to these people who know first hand what communism does to a nation.

With best wishes,

Faithfully yours,

Paul H. Douglas

JOINT RESOLUTION

73 Stat. 212.

Providing for the designation of the third week of July as "Captive Nations Week".

Whereas the greatness of the United States is in large part attributable to its having been able, through the democratic process, to achieve a harmonious national unity of its people, even though they stem from the most diverse of racial, religious, and ethnic backgrounds; and

Whereas this harmonious unification of the diverse elements of our free society has led the people of the United States to possess a warm understanding and sympathy for the aspirations of peoples everywhere and to recognize the natural interdependency of the peoples and nations of the world; and

Whereas the enslavement of a substantial part of the world's population by Communist imperialism makes a mockery of the idea of peaceful coexistence between nations and constitutes a detriment to the natural bonds of understanding between the people of the United States and other peoples; and

Whereas since 1918 the imperialistic and aggressive policies of Russian communism have resulted in the creation of a vast empire which poses a dire threat to the security of the United States and of all the free peoples of the world; and

Whereas the imperialistic policies of Communist Russia have led, through direct and indirect aggression, to the subjugation of the national independence of Poland, Hungary, Lithuania, Ukraine, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Estonia, White Ruthenia, Rumania, East Germany, Bulgaria, mainland China, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, North Korea, Albania, Idel-Ural, Tibet, Cassackia, Turkistan, North Viet-Nam, and others; and

Whereas these submerged nations look to the United States, as the citadel of human freedom, for leadership in bringing about their liberation and independence and in restoring to them the enjoyment of their Christian, Jewish, Moslem, Buddhist, or other religious freedoms, and of their individual liberties; and

Whereas it is vital to the national security of the United States that the desire for liberty and independence on the part of the peoples of these conquered nations should be steadfastly kept alive; and

Whereas the desire for liberty and independence by the overwhelming majority of the people of these submerged nations constitutes a powerful deterrent to war and one of the best hopes for a just and lasting peace; and

Whereas it is fitting that we clearly manifest to such peoples through an appropriate and official means the historic fact that the people of the United States share with them their aspirations for the recovery of their freedom and independence: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation designating the third week in July 1959 as "Captive Nations Week" and

Captive Nations
Week.

FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM Joe Califano galy

Richard
The situation in Chicago continues to deteriorate. Senator Douglas Poul A. has been in touch with Mayor Daley and Senator Douglas just called me and asked that we put together a package to speed up Federal grants in public housing and on-the-job training programs that are now pending in the Departments. In addition, he asked if there were any assistance we could make with respect to getting projects, such as recreation areas and swimming facilities, started rapidly.

I told him I would see what we were doing and get back to him. He said he would not call Mayor Daley back until I called him.

Harry McPherson tells me Nick Katzenbach is sending Roger Wilkins and some others out to Chicago and they are due to arrive there in about half hour. Nick wants me to call Mayor Daley and let him know Roger is arriving before he gets there.

Before I call Daley or do anything on the Douglas proposal, I wanted to make sure you were in agreement. I think we should do everything we can in the nature of Federal programs to avoid being accused of not doing all we can. At the same time I think we should stay out of the situation in terms of sending a Presidential representative, or your involvement in it. But Daley is very discrete, and we face none of the problems we faced with Yorty and Brown in Los Angeles. U

If you approve, I would like to tell Daley that we will do all we can to help him with Federal programs, consistent, of course, with entitlement under existing laws and regulations and in a manner that does not put a premium on riots. Harry concurs.

Dear Senator Douglas: Paul H.

The President very much appreciates your letter of July 18, 1966 evidencing your interest and support of a Department of Transportation and of the relationship of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation to the Department.

As you will recall, the Transportation Message issued to the Congress on March 2, 1966 indicated that the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation would become part of the Department of Transportation. Subsequently, Administration witnesses in their testimony before the Government Operations Committees of both Houses specified that all operating agencies in the Department would report directly to the Secretary. The St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation is, of course, such an operating agency. Moreover, Director Schultze of the Bureau of the Budget stated to the Senate Government Operations Committee that the Administration would have no objection to including the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation within the Department of Transportation by statute.

We fully concur and express no objection to a statutory transfer even though the same result can be accomplished by Executive Order.

On one other point, I should like to assure you that there has been no downgrading of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corporation by this Administration. Department Order 185, to which you refer, assigns responsibility for directing the activities of the Corporation to the Under Secretary of Commerce for Transportation. He is the principal officer in the executive branch of the government dealing with transportation policy and with these programs which the Department of Commerce has responsibility; for example, both the Maritime Administration and the Bureau of Public Roads report directly to this official. The programs of these two agencies are also of tremendous importance to the welfare of the United States.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR BILL MOYERS

In response to your request that the President wants three questions and answers on today's press conference, here is what I have been thinking about:

2. The big political story is the Kennedy poll; the success of O'Connor in New York; the closeness of the Douglas-Percy race; and the lead of Reagan, plus the President's drop in the Gallup Polls. Smart Reporters will ask questions in this area in various ways.

A. My suggestion re Kennedy: - The President does follow polls because they indicate transient public opinion but as he has said before, they do not offer absolute judgments. The President has no comment on Johnson versus Kennedy, etc. but that he considers him able, alert, and an important national figure and that the President has worked closely with him when he was Vice President and President and when he was Attorney General, ~~and that~~ the President always likes to receive his ideas and suggestions, but that the President has the overall responsibility of Chief Executive. In New York the President has not played a part in any primary, and if O'Connor is nominated ~~as a member~~ of the Democratic Party, the President will help him in any way that O'Connor desires. The President is sorry that the Liberal Party indicates that it does not propose to support O'Connor but that he respects the leaders of the Liberal Party and certainly they have a right to support whomever their members want.

In Illinois and California, that the President is very hopeful that Senator Douglas, a really great Senator, will win and that the President has visited Chicago once and will go to Illinois again if Senator Douglas, Governor Kerner and Mayor Daley desire. I think

Mr. Lyndon B. Johnson.

The White House.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

My name is Paul H. Douglas, born here in Colombia (Barranquilla) I am 15 years old; I study at Winston Churchill Highschool here in Bogotá (ninth grade).

Through this letter I want to ask you some questions that we were discussing in class.

First, Why hasn't the United States tried to abolish delinquency in the important cities like New York, Chicago, Detroit, etc.

I know by reading the newspapers of the trouble the States is having at this time, I thought that the problem between the dark and white race was fixed a little; knowing that it is difficult to abolish it, but how can the government find a way to do it?

In class today we were discussing the matter and that the delinquency is not at all good for young people specially teenagers.

Here in this country exists what is called homosexuality, specially in the boarding-schools in town, that is to say not all over but not in all of them. Frankly I am tired of it and hope to finish schooling in the states.

What do you think can be the resolution for this matter? I was in the states for vacations in June and noticed that most of the teenagers didn't pay much attention to this matter like here in Bogotá.

I will be very pleased with your answer Sir!

Sincerely Yours,

Paul H. Douglas.

Mrs. Johnson asked me to tell you how very much she appreciates your thoughtfulness in urging her acceptance of the invitation extended by the Conference of Club Presidents and Program Chairmen.

Your encouragement has made her want to accept all the more. Although this is the type of event she would take special pleasure in attending; regrettably, her schedule will not permit her that pleasure. However, we have offered to try to assist them in obtaining a member of Mrs. Johnson's Beautification Speaker's Bureau to address their meeting. A copy of our reply is enclosed.

Dear Mr. President,

Today, a giant of a man has fallen; victim of his own good deeds. The State of Illinois and the country, as a whole, should bow their heads in shame for allowing a man of such gigantic dimensions as Senator Paul H. Douglas to leave the political scene, at a time when this country needs of men with experience and knowledge that he holds.

Let us hope that this is a victory in disguise; for often in the history of mankind, destiny prepares a man through apparent ingratitude for much greater things.

The champion of the ethnic people of this hemisphere, Senator Paul H. Douglas, a living embodiment of our code of ethics; known as a symbol of Democracy and a true citizen of the world.

I sincerely hope, Mr. President, that you, with your infinite wisdom, will see fit to place Senator Douglas as Ambassador to the OAS. It is my humble opinion, as a citizen, that the future Viet Nam of this world secretly brews in Latin America. And that the Ugly American concept can be destroyed with the benign image of this great American.

A stitch in time saves nine.

Senator Douglas has been attempting to win approval this Session for a P.L. 566 small Watershed project which will be located in Schuyler County, Illinois. The name of the project is "Coal and Crane Creek Watershed." The papers have received all necessary clearance and are now in the hands of Mr. Fitzhugh Thomas at the Bureau of the Budget. All that remains to be done is for Thomas to send the papers to the House and Senate Public Works Committees for their approval. Normally, the Budget Bureau accumulates these requests for approval until they have a package of six or ten and then sends them to the Hill. In this case the Bureau has only one--the one we are interested in. We would like to have it sent up immediately and we are sure the Bureau would accommodate us if they had the word from you.

Dear Mike:

Another request via the Douglas campaign office, on which it may very well be too late.

Senator Douglas introduced the enclosed bill,
S. 3474, to authorize the Lincoln Homestead National Recreation area.
His supporters in the area now feel it would be helpful to the Senator if they could mention in an already arranged for newspaper advertisement a favorable opinion with respect to this bill on the part of the Department of the Interior. As you can see from the enclosed clipping, others are getting into the act.

It is my understanding that Interior has not done much on this and that the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation has been holding it for study in connection with other Lincoln proposals in Southern Indiana and Southern Illinois.

No doubt, it is impossible to get a favorable official report in 24 hours, but if it would be possible to secure a letter expressing the favorable interest of the Department in Senator Douglas' bill, it would be helpful.

Anything you can do would be appreciated. But of course we realize that it is rather late.

Memorandum for The President

I worked in the New England campaign but I knew much about the Paul^x Douglas campaign.

Herewith a concrete suggestion to offset criticism you will hear among the lousy liberals many of whom walked out on Douglas because of Vietnam that you did not go to Douglas's rescue when Bobby Kennedy tried.

Offer Douglas (and the earlier the better) with complete justification in view of his technical competence as an economist and as a member of the Banking and Currency Committee:

(a) an ultimate place on the Federal Reserve

Board and

(b) an immediate place on your Council of Economic Advisers with the promise of the next place on the Federal Reserve Board.

Since it is known the overwhelming money against Douglas came from bankers afraid that he might ultimately succeed to the chairmanship of either the Banking and Currency Committee or the Finance Committee, this would be doubly satisfying to the labor and other Douglas supporters.

KUP'S COLUMN

KUPCINET

This may be the time to remind President Johnson of his comment to Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.) at a White House reception some time ago: "If you ever are available, I'd like you to be the comptroller general. You're the ideal choice for the office." (The U.S. comptroller general is overseer of all government spending.) . . . The American Football League is checking signals on one of its star quarterbacks. The charge: point shaving. . . Minor K. Wilson, apparently (but still not definitely) defeated for sheriff by Republican Joe Woods, can have his old post as top aide to Police Supt. O. W. Wilson for the asking. Minor resigned from the department to make the political race. He did not, as reported, take a leave of absence.

Dear Mr President, -

You need a very strong courageous incorruptible
character - as Comptroller -

A long time civil servant,

position of public power + just is not the man for such a job - no matter how long time loyal & faithful his

Douglas would be ideal

Dear Mr. President:

MC The people of Illinois have given you our beloved senator Douglas to use for the good of all the people of the United States in whatever capacity you see fit to use him. We feel his stature is great enough to represent us as ambassador to the United Nations or to some other country where an informed fair man is needed or where he can advise directly to ^{our} government policy. We were faced with a decision between a vibrant, sincere, capable, honest young man who might not run again if defeated and who we felt we needed to use and develop and a nationally known figure who we felt could rise beyond our state to serve all people. The next move is up to you. Give Douglas the position which will honor him and will tell him that his State wanted him to rise to this new position so they set him free -

I am one of many who voted for you, who have voted for Douglas in the past and who voted for Percy this time for senator because I didn't have foresight to vote him in as Governor of Illinois when he ran for that office. We know he too will represent us well.

My dear Mr. President:

On November the 8th a majority of the voting citizens of the State of Illinois suffered a tragic impairment of reasoning powers. They failed to return Mr. Paul H. Douglas to the Senate - despite his outstanding accomplishments.

The millions of his devoted friends throughout our land are saddened by this failure of appreciation by a majority of the voting citizens of this state, and I am confident that you share this keen disappointment with us. They are acutely aware of Mr. Douglas' wisdom, of his compassion, and of the fact that through the years he has been a courageous champion of just causes, irrespective of their popularity.

Surely his eloquent voice should continue to be heard from a forum where he would continue to represent us. Thus, I have been asking many of my friends whether they agreed that the position of Representative of the United States at the United Nations was a role peculiarly fitted to his talents. The reaction has been one of warm and instant enthusiasm.

Accordingly, I respectfully request you to consider favorably the appointment of our beloved Senator Paul H. Douglas as the representative of all the peoples (thus including his legion of admirers in the State of Illinois) to the post of Representative of the United States at the United Nations.

If such an appointment were made, you can be assured that our country would be most ably represented - and this letter casts no implication that we are not now being ably represented by the present Representative, Mr. Goldberg. But, an injustice would be righted - and, I assume, presumably some other significant role could be found for Mr. Goldberg that would be acceptable to him.

For myself, I can assure you, Mr. President, that Mr. Douglas through the long years of our friendship has maintained a close contact with the peoples of Czechoslovak origin. His friendship with them kept him abreast of the current events and aspirations of the peoples in the present Czechoslovak satellite republic. I also know that he has maintained equally close ties with all the other ethnic groups in our state, so that he is fully acquainted with the problems and interests of most of the countries represented at the United Nations.

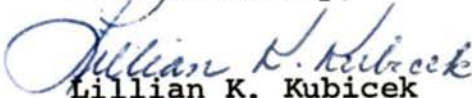

Were you to make this appointment, we would not have lost our champion but, instead, he would have been released to a greater duty and responsibility, and you, dear Mr. President, would have the deep gratitude of all of us.

I took the liberty of writing this to you at your beloved LBJ Ranch with the thought that there you might be slightly freer of some of the harassments of Washington, D. C. residence, so that you might have a little more time to seriously consider this proposal.

I have not discussed this request with Senator Douglas but am advising him and also Mayor Richard A. Daley by sending to each of them a copy of this letter.

May I take this opportunity of also extending to you my sincere wishes that you will have as painless an operation as is possible, followed by a speedy recovery - as we need you at the helm.

Most sincerely,

Lillian K. Kubicek

My dear Mr. Califano:

I have been thinking over the most flattering suggestion of the President that I serve as the part-time chairman of a citizens committee which would report to the President by June of 1968, or before. This committee would report on a series of problems dealing, in particular, with housing, neighborhood and community life, zoning, expenditure needs and sources of revenue. My chief reservation springs from my desire not to take a government position, but to revert to being a private citizen. Nevertheless, after mature consideration I am happy to accept, subject to three basic conditions:

1) That I may take with me my personal secretary, Mrs. Jane Carey Enger, at her present salary of $13,500. Mrs. Enger is capable of being the secretary and personnel officer of the committee, but I think it would be better if she started out as my secretary and then we could see whether a formal secretary of the committee would be needed also. In any event, I would like to ask that, in addition to her official duties, Mrs. Enger be permitted to work on my personal affairs for one or two hours a day. I would also like to have her given civil service status so that she may be protected in the future and be able to count her service for the committee as an additional credit for future retirement. Furthermore, if she finds that household cares and duties are too time-consuming, I would like it understood that she would be permitted to work part-time at a correspondingly reduced salary, e.g., if half-time, at $6,750.

2) I would like to have the authority to select the chief of staff or director of studies subject to White House veto. My present intention,

xx,

I join with all citizens of our country in rejoicing at your speedy convalescence and in wishing you a complete recovery.

I take the liberty of writing to you concerning one of the great public servants of our time, Senator Paul H. Douglas. It would indeed be a shocking failure to use expertise and talent if your administration did not avail itself of Senator Douglas' services in an important capacity. He is a unique public servant. His tremendous experience, great courage, social vision and very high intelligence suggest that he should be put to work again as soon as his term expires at the end of this year.

I know that such an appointment would add strength to your administration. It would be received by the country as an indication that a great public servant is entitled to continue in government, even if defeated for no very good reason.

My Dear Mr. President,

I am a sophomore at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, but my home is in Scarsdale, New York. Until I came to school here I knew very little about Senator Douglas. However, knowing that Mr Douglas had to defend his seat against the young Mr. Percy, I investigated what made Mr. Douglas so important to the intelligencia of Government. I am quite impressed with his record as a legislator, especially in Civil Rights.

However, with time so precious to both of us, I would like to make a suggestion that I think could benefit the entire nation. All Washington is saying - or say Time Magazine says - that Justice Clark will resign from the Supreme Court if you confirm his son in the appointment to Attorney General. That would leave a vacancy on the bench, and I feel that Paul Douglas, although he has just accepted at The

Mr. President:

MC
In writing to the President I keep forgetting that I am writing to an office force, very efficient to be sure, but perhaps two hundred thousand--I've been told.

The President knows Senator Douglas personally much better than I do, and neither the President nor the Senator scarcely know me. But I may have failed to take into account that those handling my letters may never have heard of Senator Douglas.

Paul Douglas, before becoming a Senator was a professor at the University of Chicago and one of the leading economists of the Nation. He has made a special study on tax loop holes, which if stopped could provide the needed funds for Viet Nam, without additional taxes. He had expected to use this knowledge in the senate--barring white backlash.

It is my position that the Senator would be more useful to the Administration anyway, in initiating such needful legislation, and in taking other necessary measures to mend the present tax structure.

I hope that Senator Douglas will become a member of the Administration immediately. I believe that there are millions of others who would concur with me, but too many of whom I fear are not writing in to say this.

Respectfully,

John Curtis Wood

Some time ago you urged that those with a concern on Viet Nam write to the President. There are volumes I wish to write and speak, but I choke on the words--on this anniversary of Pearl Harbor--this birthday of my brother, who was shot down on the street by the underworld in 1922, the War I uniform scarcely off his back. He had publicly opposed selling liquor to high school girls.

This much comes clearly at the moment. The whole people need Senator Douglas, at this troubled time. I urge you to appoint him to the Cabinet, at the earliest possible moment. I believe that there are millions who would urge this.
