Protocol
September 13, 1966

HIS EXCELLENCY LEOPOLD SEDAR SENGHOR
PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SENEGAL

A serious and successful statesman, the Father of his Country, a gifted poet and essayist, President Leopold Sedar Senghor is one of the distinguished men of our time.

President Senghor was born on October 9, 1906, in the coastal town of Joal, near Dakar, one of 20 children of a Senegalese planter. Following early education in Senegal, he won a scholarship to the Lycée Louis le Grand in Paris, and later attended the Ecole Normale Supérieure of the University of Paris where he studied literature and languages. He received the degree of agrégé de grammaire in 1935, one of the first Africans from south of the Sahara to attain that distinction. He taught in French schools until the beginning of World War II in 1940. During the Nazi occupation, he was a prisoner of war, an experience that inspired some of his finest poetry.

After the war, President Senghor began his remarkable political career. Along with Lamine Gueye, he was elected to the French Constituent Assemblies of 1945 and 1946. In 1948 he founded the Bloc Démocratique Sénégalais political party and began to develop the popular support that has kept him in the forefront of Senegalese and East African politics since that time. From 1951 to 1959 he held a seat in the French National Assembly, serving as Secretary of State for Scientific Research from 1955 to 1956 in the Edgar Faure government.

On the eve of independence, recognizing the danger of what he called the "Balkanization" of former French West Africa, President Senghor attempted to unite Senegal and the French Sudan in the Mali Federation. The Federation enjoyed only a short existence, however, and following its dissolution in August 1960, Leopold Sedar Senghor was elected President of Senegal. President Johnson, then Vice President, represented the United States at the independence ceremonies in April 1961.

As a firm believer in the necessity for closer cooperation among African states, President Senghor has led Senegal into the Organization of African Unity and the Common Organization of Africa and Malagasy States. He is also a sponsor of the four-nation group--Senegal, Mali, Mauritania, Guinea--now planning joint development of the Senegal River Basin.

In addition to his prestige as a statesman, President Senghor has achieved fame as a poet and essayist. To date, he has published seven books of verse, written numerous prefaces to introduce young Negro poets to the public, and translated into French selected poetry of T. S. Eliot, Langston Hughes and James Weldon Johnson, to name a few. He is also the author of numerous essays and articles including On African Socialism (New York, Praeger, 1964) and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin et la Politique Africaine (Paris, Senil, 1961). President Senghor was also the moving force behind the First World Festival of Negro Arts, held in Dakar in April 1965.

President Senghor speaks French and reads English easily, though he seldom speaks it. He is married and has three sons.

HIS EXCELLENCY DOUDOU THIAM
MINISTER OF STATE IN CHARGE OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Born on February 3, 1926, at Bambey in the Diourbel district, Mr. Thiam is a member of the Wolof tribe. After graduating from Dakar's Lycee Van Vollenhoven, he studied at the law faculties of the universities of Paris and Poitiers, earning a doctorate of law. While in France, he received the Laureat de la Faculte de Droit (1946), a scholarship from the city of Paris and first prize for his thesis at Poitiers. He entered politics on his return to Senegal in 1951 and was elected to the Territorial Assembly in 1952. Mr. Thiam was a member of the Grand Council of French West Africa (1957-59), and of the Mali Federal Assembly. Elected to the Legislative Assembly, he served as Minister of Finance, Economic Affairs and Planning in the federal Cabinet from August 1959 until the dissolution of the Mali Federation in August 1960. Since then, Mr. Thiam has been Minister of Foreign Affairs with the exception of one month during the 1962 political crisis when he yielded the Foreign Affairs portfolio to Andre Guillabert and received the Justice portfolio. He now bears the official titles of Minister of State in Charge of Foreign Affairs and Parliamentary Liaison and Deputy President.

Mr. Thiam has led Senegal's delegations to the United Nations General Assembly since 1959. He has attended numerous conferences of the United Nation's economic bodies and economic conference of French-speaking Africa. He has been especially active at meetings of the African and Malagasy Common Organization (OCAM) and of its predecessor organizations. He went to Warsaw in September 1964 to the congress of the World Federation of Twin Cities and was re-elected its president. In November 1965, he traveled to the United States to receive an honorary doctor of laws degree from St. John's University of New York.

MINISTER OF FINANCE

A Frenchman who elected Senegalese citizenship, Jean Collin is now the Minister of Finance. He was born on September 19, 1924 in Paris. In addition to a law degree and a certificate from a school of languages, Mr. Collin completed a course at the Ecole Nationale de la France d'Outre Mer. He served in Cameroon from March 1946 to April 1947, returned briefly to work in the Ministry of Overseas France, and then went to Senegal, where he became Director of Information of Radio Dakar in 1948. In 1949-1950, he was back in Paris in the Ministry of Overseas France. Mr. Collin then returned to Cameroon as an administrator until May 1957, when he went to Senegal to serve as Cabinet Director for the President of the Governing Council of Senegal.

In subsequent years Mr. Collin served twice as Governor of the Cap Vert region, as Secretary General of the Senegalese Government and, from May 1963 to February 8, 1964, as Secretary General of the Presidency. On the latter date, he was named Minister of Finance.

Mr. Collin is married to a niece of President Senghor and has two children.

HIS EXCELLENCY HABIB THIAM
MINISTER OF PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT

A member of a large and distinguished family, Habib Thiam was born on January 21, 1933, at Dakar. He attended the Lycee Van Vollenhoven and then went to France to continue his studies. He received a baccalaureate in liberal arts and philosophy from the College Jules Ferry, studied for a time at the Lycee Louis le Grand in Paris, and graduated from the Ecole Nationale de la France d'Outre-Mer in 1960. He had also received a law degree in 1959. Mr. Thiam gained valuable experience in France by working at the French Finance Ministry, the Bank of France, the French Exchange Office and the General Commissariat of the French Plan. On his return to Senegal, Mr. Thiam served in the post-independence Government as Director of Cabinet in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and, later, in the Ministry of Justice.

Since December 1962, he has directed Senegal's economic development. At that time President Senghor appointed him Secretary of State in charge of Planning and Development, and he became Minister of Planning and Development in 1963. He is married to a French woman and has children. He is no relation to Foreign Minister Doudou Thiam.

HIS EXCELLENCY OUSMANE SOCE DIOP
AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES
AND PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE TO THE UNITED NATIONS

Ousmane Soce Diop has been Senegal's only Ambassador to the United States. He presented his credentials to President Eisenhower on December 9, 1960, less than a month after his credentials were accepted at the United Nations. He is also accredited to Argentina, Brazil, Mexico, Haiti, Trinidad, Canada and Japan.

Ambassador Diop was born at Rufisque on October 30, 1911. He attended the Lycee at Dakar and the Ecole Veterinaire d'Alfort in Paris. He also studied philology at the Sorbonne. For a short time after graduation, he served as a veterinary inspector in Senegal. From 1945 to 1952, Ambassador Diop was a Senator from Senegal and was Secretary of the Council of the French Republic from 1946 until 1948. Ambassador Diop was elected to the Territorial Council at Dakar in March 1957. He became a Senegalese Progressive Union (UPS) Deputy to the Constitutive Assembly in November 1957, and was re-elected to the Legislative Assembly in March 1959. From June 1958 until April 1959, he was Minister of Planning. He was Senegal's representative to the Senate of the French Community (April 1959 - January 1961) and Deputy Secretary General of the UPS (February 1959 - July 1960).

The Ambassador has published novels, poems and short stories, usually under the pen name Ousmane Soce. He once edited the UPS newspaper, Regroupment, and in 1961 edited Bingo, an African photo magazine. He is married and has one son.

BRIGADIER GENERAL JEAN ALFRED DIALLO
COMMANDER IN CHIEF AND CHIEF OF STAFF
OF THE ARMED FORCES OF SENEGAL

Brigadier General Jean Alfred Diallo was born at Tivaouane on September 16, 1911. After completing his secondary studies at the Lycee Faidherbe at Saint Louis, he joined the French Army's 5th Engineer Regiment at Versailles at the age of 18. He remained with the Regiment until the beginning of World War II, then served in an engineer company until the fall of France. He participated in the Tunisian campaign and was promoted to Second Lieutenant. General Diallo took part in the campaigns in France and Germany. In 1945, he was promoted to First Lieutenant and placed in command of a quartermaster company in the army of occupation in Germany. As a Captain in 1951, he directed construction work at the Tourane Base in French Indo-China. He returned to France in 1954.

After two years, he went to Senegal as commanding officer of an engineer company at Bargny. In January 1961, he became commander of the 1st Battalion of the Engineers and Commandant of the Military Region of Cap Vert. In April 1961, he was promoted to Battalion Commander in the French Army and in June was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel by the Government of Senegal. He transferred officially to the Senegalese Army in October 1961, at which time he opted for Senegalese citizenship.

During the Cabinet crisis of December 1962 when Mamadou Dia attempted to seize control of the Government, General Diallo played a crucial role in determining the outcome of the Dia-Senghor struggle. As a result, he was made Commander in Chief and Chief of Staff of the Armed Forces of Senegal on December 17, 1962. He was promoted to Colonel in 1963 and to Brigadier General in January 1965.

General Diallo is an officer of the Legion of Honor and has been decorated by his own and other governments. He has a French wife and seven children.

HIS EXCELLENCY ANDRE-JEAN COULBARY
AMBASSADOR TO LIBERIA AND SIERRA LEONE

Presently Senegal's Ambassador to Liberia and Sierra Leone, Andre-Jean Coulbary entered the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1961. After serving two years as Counselor of the Senegalese Embassy in London, he was named Chief of Protocol in the Foreign Ministry (with rank of Minister Plenipotentiary) and served in that capacity from January 1963 to June 1965, when he was appointed to his present position. The Government of Senegal recently decided to close its mission in Monrovia and Ambassador Coulbary's next assignment has not been announced.

The son of one of Senegal's first African doctors and a former President of the Senegalese Red Cross, Ambassador Coulbary was born on September 25, 1937, at Dakar. Having completed his primary and secondary school education at Dakar's Lycee Van Vollenhoven, young Andre-Jean Coulbary studied English at the University of Dakar. During the 1958-59 school year, he taught in Liverpool as one of the first three French Language Assistants sent to England from Dakar University. Upon returning to Dakar, and until he entered the diplomatic service in 1961, he taught English at the Lycee Blaise Diagne and, additionally during part of that time, directed the English-language news broadcasts of Radio Senegal.

During his tour at the Senegalese Embassy in London, Ambassador Coulbary visited most Western European countries. He has participated in a number of international conferences, most notably the Vienna Conference on diplomatic relations and immunities. He is fluent in English, speaks good Italian, Spanish, fair Portuguese and has studied some Russian.

Ambassador Coulbary is Roman Catholic. His wife, a Gambian, is a cousin of the wife of Prime Minister Jawara of The Gambia. They have one child.

MR. JOSEPH MATHIAM
DEPUTY, NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

Joseph Mathiam is a Deputy in the National Assembly, representing the Casamance, a region geographically isolated from Dakar and the rest of Senegal by The Gambia, and known for its sectionalism. He is Secretary of the Assembly's Committee on Finance, Economic Affairs and Planning. He is also a member of the Assembly's Committee on Legislation and Justice.

Mr. Mathiam was born at Elinkine in the Casamance in February 1933. His academic training includes secondary studies in Mali and Senegal, sociology studies at the University of Dakar and graduate training in law and economics at Paris. Mr. Mathiam has written several articles for African and European publications. He has been editor of the magazine Tam-Tam and a correspondent for Afrique Nouvelle.

After his secondary studies were completed at the Lycee Faidherbe at Saint Louis, Mr. Valantin went on to receive a Bachelor's Degree in secondary education in 1949, a licence in law in 1955 from the University of Paris, a diploma of higher studies in 1957 and, in 1959, a certificate from the Ecole Nationale de la France d'Outre-mer. His education completed, Mr. Valantin became Senghor's Chief of Cabinet while Senghor was President of the Federal Assembly of the Mali Federation (the short-lived union of Mali and Senegal which dissolved in August 1960). Mr. Valantin, in 1960, took over the direction of the Cabinet of the Minister of Planning and Development. From 1961 until 1962, he was Governor of the region of Thies, and from 1962 until 1965 was General Director of the Agricultural Marketing Office.

Dear Mr. President:

Your very gracious letter of September 8th was delayed in reaching me because it had to be forwarded from the Conference office in Chicago to my own business office in New York. Please excuse my delay in acknowledging it, and be assured that your encouragement will be of real support during the difficult days that lie ahead for advocates of civil rights.

In spite of some discouraging signs in recent elections, there remains a vast body of good-will and determination, especially in the religious communities, which can be drawn upon for further progress. It is now up to the private sector of our society to carry on the great work which your political leadership has given us in the legislative fields during recent years. The National Conference will devote all its efforts to this goal, and will do so with more assurance in view of your encouragement and support.

Let me add also my appreciation for being included in your guest list of the luncheon for President Senghor of Senegal yesterday. It was a real privilege to be able to assist in honoring such an outstanding statesman.

Sincerely,

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 19, 1966

Dear President Senghor:

Thank you so much for your letter of September 3.

I was greatly distressed to learn of the damage which prolonged drought has done to the Senegalese economy, particularly the current grain crop. I can assure you, Mr. President, that my own childhood on a farm in an arid region taught me the value of water and the curse of drought.

I have asked my associates to give your request careful, sympathetic and prompt consideration. However, as you know, there are heavy demands on our limited grain supplies. I am pleased to learn, therefore, that your government is also canvassing other available sources.

I hope to be ready to discuss this matter with you in detail during your visit here.

I am very much looking forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,

His Excellency
Leopold Sedar Senghor

MEMORANDUM FOR

Colonel Cross

The meeting concerning the visit of Chancellor Erhard and President Senghor was held in the Situation Room from 3:00 to 4:30 p. m. today, with the following principal attendees: Walt Rostow, Bess Abell, Liz Carpenter, Bob Kintner, Jim Symington, Bromley Smith, Sam King, Tom Johnson, several other State Department country specialists, and myself.

Following items of interest were noted:

ERHARD VISIT

1. Arrival Sunday, 25 September. No military arrival ceremonies. This is to be a working visit in which a number of substantive problems must be discussed between the President and the Chancellor. Some attempt will be made for press exposure, with possible emphasis of Germany's developmental programs. Of significant importance in the way substantive talks will be handled will be the outcome of the debate associated with Senator Mansfield's proposal for a substantial reduction of American troops in Europe.
2. This is Mrs. Erhard's first visit to the United States. She speaks no english; likes modern painting and architecture, might like to see Reston (a suburban development near Dulles).
3. Items discussed for consideration during the visit:
 - a. Repatriation of German paintings which were seized during WW II. Legislation is being considered to place these paintings in a trust status to West Germany for eventual return to East Germany.
 - b. Recognition of the successful German Peace Corps which is being developed along lines similar to those of the U.S. Peace Corps.
 - c. Concentration on the communique and the President's toast to highlight substantive items rather than amenities and platitudes.
4. Gifts to be considered: the Chancellor - night walking stick; Mrs. Erhard - a painting.

I am delighted to learn that September 28 and 29, following your visit to Canada, would be a convenient time for you to stop in Washington for an informal visit. It would be a particular pleasure for me to welcome you at that time. I sincerely hope your schedule will permit you to spend several days visiting other parts of the United States as well so that the American people will be able to join me in reciprocating the warm hospitality you extended when I represented the United States in Dakar on the first anniversary of Senegal's independence in 1961.

With warm good wishes,

Sincerely,

Senghor Visit

1. Deeply regret that, because of other presidential commitments, neither rpt neither period proposed by Senghor for visit is possible. Only possibility for White House at this time would be week of July 11, with two-day Washington portion of visit commencing July [X] 12 or 13. (White House strongly prefers state visit commence with meeting of two Presidents in Washington and, for variety reasons, it simply not practical arrange Washington portion of visit during weekend).

2. Recognize our proposed dates may conflict with other plans Senghor may already have made, but suggest you discuss matter with him frankly, assuring him we will make every effort reschedule visit for mutually acceptable date in future if week of July 11 not possible for him. Advise.

Senghor Visit.

1. While we wish accede to Senghor's wishes, if at all possible, in arranging dates for visit, White House prefers state visit commence with meeting of two Presidents in Washington and, for variety reasons, it simply not practical arrange Washington portion of visit during weekend. Additional problems would be posed by scheduling Washington portion over Fourth of July holiday weekend. Nevertheless, in view Senghor's expressed strong preference for July 1-8 dates, presumably to permit him return Dakar for UPS National Council meeting July 9 and take his scheduled vacation in France thereafter, suggest possibility advancing start of visit by one day to June 30. This would permit Washington portion of visit take place June ~~30~~³⁰ and July 1 prior beginning holiday and leave Washington and tour elsewhere permit party/~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ during weekend when many officials and representatives fourth estate not rpt not available Washington.

2. In view Senghor's plans attend OCAM Chiefs of State Conference Tananarive June 25 to 28, suggested June 30 beginning date for Washington visit may not be practical but suggest you discuss question frankly with him to ascertain his possible wishes. I thought you might want these copies of photographs of the surface of the moon taken by the Surveyor I spacecraft.

These and other photographs will be distributed to the scientific community of the world in the hope that they will contribute to our combined knowledge of the lunar surface.

I have the strong feeling that if we are wise and earnest, what is happening in outer space can help us live better together on earth.

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Mr. and Mrs. Padraic N. Kennedy are planning to attend the First World Festival of Negro Arts. They will be staying at the Ngor Hotel from April 8 through April 17.

Mr. Kennedy is a former associate of mine at the Peace Corps, and is now Deputy Director of VISTA.

I would greatly appreciate any assistance you could give them in making their visit to Senegal enjoyable, particularly in helping them locate tickets to the various events and receptions. The Kennedys are especially interested in the plastic arts and in African literature in French.

I will be most grateful for any courtesies you extend to them.

Sincerely,

Bill Meyers

MEMORANDUM FOR: The President

The first ^X World Festival of Negro Arts will be held in Dakar, Senegal, April 1-24. An estimated 5,000 persons will participate from countries all over the world. The State Department, the Agency for International Development, and the U. S. Information Agency are all cooperating with the U. S. Public Committee in arranging exhibits of contemporary Negro art in all fields. Present scheduling from here include, among others, singers Marian Anderson and William Warfield, anthropologist St. Clair Drake and the De Paur Chorus.

The Soviet Union is sending 520 "spectators" and may possibly rent a ship as a hotel.

Because of its worldwide significance I would suggest that your office give serious consideration to naming an official delegation to represent the U. S. Government at some phase of this event. This view is shared by others interested in obtaining maximum usefulness for U. S. objectives. I am sending Howard B. Woods, Associate Director (Program Development), to personally represent me at the Festival. In the event the decision is made to name an official delegation, I would urge that Mr. Woods be made a part of it.

MR. PRESIDENT:

On Wednesday, September 15, the first commercial trade mission to Poland and Rumania will depart. The members of the mission are at the Commerce Department for briefing now. We could bring them over at 11:00 tomorrow to see you.

Bill Moyers thinks this is an important followup story to your announced policy of "building bridges of increased trade" with the people of Eastern Europe.

Do you want us to set this up?

The American Society of African Culture
15 East 40th Street
New York 16, N. Y.

PLEASE ACCEPT MY CONGRATULATIONS ON THE FORMATION OF THE UNITED STATES COMMITTEE FOR THE FIRST WORLD FESTIVAL OF NEGRO ARTS AND BEST WISHES FOR THE SUCCESS OF THE WORK IT HAS SO WELL BEGUN."

THE FIRST WORLD FESTIVAL OF NEGRO ARTS IS A TRIBUTE TO THE VISION AND INITIATIVE OF THE REPUBLIC OF SENEGAL AND ITS DISTINGUISHED PRESIDENT, LEOPOLD SEDAR SENGHOR. IT WILL DRAMATIZE ON A WORLD STAGE THE ARTISTIC GIFTS THE NEGRO HAS CONTRIBUTED TO THE ENRICHMENT OF WORLD CULTURE.

NOWHERE OUTSIDE OF AFRICA ITSELF HAVE THE VALUES AND THE INFLUENCE OF NEGRO ARTS ACHIEVED GREATER VITALITY THAN HERE IN THE UNITED STATES. THESE VALUES, SO FAMILIAR TO AMERICANS, HAVE YET TO BE FULLY APPRECIATED BEYOND OUR BORDERS. THE FESTIVAL SHOULD DO MUCH TO WIN FOR THE GENIUS OF NEGRO ARTISTS THE RECOGNITION IT DESERVES.

I AM GRATIFIED AT THE PRIVATE AMERICAN RESPONSE TO THIS CAUSE, AND PLEASED THAT THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT IS ABLE TO COOPERATE WITH THE COMMITTEE TO ARRANGE FOR A SUITABLE AMERICAN PARTICIPATION IN THE FESTIVAL. I AM NO LESS GRATIFIED THAT THIS WHOLE EFFORT REFLECTS SO FAITHFULLY THE IDEALS AND PURPOSES OF INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION YEAR.

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

I was sorry to learn that you had been ill. It is reassuring to know, however, that you will be able to proceed to London shortly.

No doubt your illness is a result of long hours of strenuous work in a difficult environment -- a clear indication of the great dedication and effort you expended in representing the United States Government at Dakar. Your service has earned my gratitude and that of your colleagues and friends around the world.

I wish you the very best of luck and the greatest success in your forthcoming assignment.

Dear Mr. President:

On July 31, 1964, cameras of the United States Spacecraft Ranger VII successfully photographed the surface of the Moon from close range. These photographs represent a very great extension in our knowledge of the Moon. The detail of our perception has improved more in this one step than in the three centuries of evolution of the earth-bound telescope. Having dedicated their efforts to the exploration of outer space for peaceful purposes, the people of the United States hope that this knowledge -- and what is learned in the continuing explorations of the future -- will work to the ultimate benefit of mankind in all lands.

It is, therefore, an honor and a privilege to present to you and your people on behalf of the people of the United States this special set of photographs of the Moon taken on the historic flight of the Ranger VII. These photographs symbolize the continuing desire of the United States that the benefits of this age of scientific discovery may be shared among all nations and all peoples for the cause of peace and human progress.

Sincerely,

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

Monsieur le Président,

Je veux, tout d'abord, Vous remercier d'avoir pensé à m'envoyer Votre ouvrage et de me l'avoir dédié en des termes qui m'ont beaucoup touché.

Croyez le, Monsieur le Président, le Gouvernement et le Peuple sénégalais conservent un vif souvenir de la visite que Vous nous avez faite à l'occasion du premier anniversaire de l'Indépendance du Sénégal. Je suis sûr, pour ma part, que les relations amicales, qui existent entre nos deux Pays ne pourront que se renforcer sous Votre Gouvernement. En tout cas, mon Gouvernement a l'intention d'agir positivement dans ce sens. De Votre côté, la désignation de Monsieur Mercer COOK comme Ambassadeur des Etats-Unis au Sénégal, qui est un vieil ami de trente ans, témoigne la même volonté de coopération plus étroite.

President of the Republic of Senegal,

Dakar.

It gives me great pleasure to extend to you and to the people of the Republic of Senegal on this fourth anniversary of your independence the friendly greetings and sincere best wishes of the people of the United States. Personally, I shall never forget the friendship and warm hospitality which you, your Ministers, and the Senegalese people extended to those of us who were honored by being able to join with you in the celebrations in Dakar marking the first anniversary of Senegal's independence. In fond memory of those festive days, and convinced of the special bonds of friendship which link our two great republics, it is a particular pleasure for me to add to these official greetings my own very best personal wishes to you and your countrymen on this important occasion.

Lyndon B. Johnson
