Dear Mr. President:

mm It was most understanding of you and Mrs. Johnson to journey to New York, taking time out of your busy schedule to attend the services for my beloved wife.

A sorrow of this sort is hard to assuage, but I want you to know that your presence and gentle conversation with me were deeply felt.

With affectionate and warmest regards,
I am

Sincerely yours,

Dear Congressman:

The President noted with deep appreciation your remarks of Thursday on the Floor of the House regarding his attendance at the funeral services for Mrs. Emanuel Celler.

You stated eloquently and well the President's wish to show his deep affection and respect for the Chairman and Mrs. Celler, and he has asked me to thank you for a very thoughtful statement.

Sincerely,

Henry H. Wilson, Jr.

Jack,

After reading his press conference today, the President asked that you go over immediately the rough copy of any press conference he has in the future and edit it -- for ands and buts... sentence structure -- paragraphs, etc.

Jack,

I think it would be good for you to go, if you don't mind.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT:

I am going to dinner with MM and will be back in an hour to get your speech all ready -- back-up, teleprompter, press release, etc.

I will be working with Bator on final drafting... after Ball and Rusk have put forward their minor changes.

If it meets with your approval, I will stay here while you go to New York. I have considerable letter-drafting to do and I could use that time to do it.

Jake, Joe and the entire Congressional Liason group will be aboard, and you will have a ratio of about one LBJ man to every three Congressmen.

Of course if you think I should be aboard, I will be there.
