

Mauvy Maverick and Malcolm Bondwell have been with me all week and every day has been a busy day for me. We have visited dozens of Departments in attempts to bring relief or satisfaction to some admiring or to say the least believing Constituent.

Had a long telephone chat with Dan Quill at Mid Night last evening.
Yesterday I got a job for his baby sister and Nellie Mc Kellam (the Robtson girl). They will probably leave Los Angeles tonight arriving here in time for work Friday. Both will work for a personal friend of mine in the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.
The little Quill girl will go to George Worthington.

My dear;

When it isn't indifference or independence that delays my mail inefficiency presents itself and my disappointment is assured. For three days I've watched and waited for your second letter. From your telephone conversation I felt positive my letter would be at the office this morning when I came to work. It wasn't. The House postoffice in answer to my inquiry said the delivery was unavoidably delayed and now that it is almost time for lunch I get my semi-weekly note - Honey don't be so long between notes.

3 University and complete her work for a D.A. and Nettie Lee will attempt to complete a couple of remaining chapters on her M.A. thesis.

With their arrival, ~~and~~ my assumed guardianship of them will increase my responsibilities to almost a dozen young ambitious Texans. Only this morning I told a lady at the hotel that someday in the not too far distant future, ^{I hoped} to begin plans for a home and family of my own. Then darling what shall we do with all of these adopted children?

School begins Wednesday afternoon at five. Classes are from five to seven every evening except Saturday and Sunday. With two hours of 4 preparation for each hour of recitation apparently six hours of my day will be spent in preparation for the future. As much as I try too much of the other eighteen remaining are devoted to thoughts, reflections and dreams of my lost week in Texas and the possible happiness that will result.

I'm trying to get all of the play out of my system before tomorrow night. Sunday and until early Monday with Bill & Mrs. White, Helen (the radio writer in the dept of ag.) and Malcolm. I dined, drank and danced. Monday night we drove several miles into Maryland and had dinner and music that almost made me leave for Texas and you that night—to visit Texas and they saw to it that we got the best last night.

A night or two after we arrived in Wokington Maury insisted that we accompany him to hear the Negro preacher Elder Michaux - I know you have heard him broadcast. This was my first visit to a negro church but there I learned the effectiveness of psychology. There I heard some of the best singing to be heard anywhere. All of the Negroes laughing, shouting and happy. Why can't we have more enjoyment, more interesting and more happiness

It is only your aloofness, independence and indifference that insures my retaining and evidencing a semblance of sanity when ~~possessed~~ with such thoughts.

Last night after leaving the office I visited some Corpus girls, had a highball and went with Maury to the circus. Maury is a member of the "Circus fans" and by reason of such membership and his influence as a new member of Congress he got us the best seats in the tent.
All of the circus stars called at our seats and chatted with Maury.
He always entertains them when they providing religious services.

This morning your letter indicated that you too had planned places for us to go together! Every interesting place I see I make a mental reservation and tell myself that I shall take you there where you are mine. I want to go thro' the Museum, the Congressional Library, the Smithsonian, the Civil War battlefields and all of these most interesting places. One week we must go over to New York together. Then we must visit Maryland and Virginia together.

Why must we wait 12 long months to begin to do the things we want to do together forever and ever.

I'm thankful for you and I want to be thankful for this Thanksgiving - I think I shall fly to Texas and bring you something there. Why - Why can't I.

Still not sure?

I'm more positive with each day and that is. What makes it so hard. There is a big tug & kiss - London
