Collection: Special File on the Assassination of John F. Kennedy, 11/22/1963 - 1968 (NAID 875776)

<http://discoverlbj.org/exhibits/show/loh/pres/special>

Scope and content note:

President Lyndon B. Johnson's staff brought together materials related to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy when books and manuscripts about President Kennedy's assassination were being written. These included "The Death of a President" by William Manchester, Jim Bishop's book "The Day Kennedy Was Shot," and Bishop's manuscript of A "Day in the Life of President Johnson."

The collection contains memorandums, reports, transcripts, correspondence, copies of galley proofs and clippings about the assassination, about Johnson's relationship with John Kennedy before the assassination, and the formation of the Warren Commission. Included in the collection are President and Mrs. Johnson's statements made to the Warren Commission, along with Secret Service reports and exhibits gathered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
