AIDES FILES: MILDRED STEGALL

For a list of folder titles of only those files available for research, see page 2.

Scope and content note:

This collection consists of materials collected by Mildred Stegall during her long service as a member of Lyndon B. Johnson's staff. Stegall joined Johnson's Senate staff in 1956 and worked with Walter Jenkins, a staff aide who maintained many personal financial and campaign files for the Johnsons. Stegall took custody of Jenkins files when he left Johnson's White House staff in October 1964.

The collection includes material dealing with Lyndon Johnson's personal finances and activities, his personal property and real estate, his political campaigns, and the administration of Johnson's Senate, Vice Presidential, Presidential, and Post-Presidential offices. During the years Lyndon Johnson served as President, Mildred Stegall was a Staff Assistant and served as the liaison between the White House and the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). During this period she worked with Walter Jenkins who was then Special Assistant to the President, and following Jenkins departure, she worked with W. Marvin Watson, Special Assistant to the President. The collection reflects her relationship as the liaison with the FBI and contains investigative material J. Edgar Hoover, the FBI Director, sent to Jenkins, Watson, and Stegall. Hoover often intended for the information he sent to be transmitted to the President. Stegall joined Johnson's Post-Presidential staff in Austin, Texas, and worked closely with W. Thomas Johnson, the former Presidents Executive Assistant. The collection includes files Thomas Johnson maintained and turned over to Stegall.
