POST-PRES RANCH FILES

Scope and content note:

This collection consists of materials maintained for Lyndon Johnson at the LBJ Ranch during the post presidential years. The material was sent to the Library by Mary Rather in 1975. The files were actively used by Lyndon Johnson and his handwritten notations are found on documents throughout the collection.

Some of the main topics include the following: elections; CBS; interviews with LBJ; Johnson City; the LBJ State and National Parks; the LBJ Library and School of Public Affairs; Vietnam; speeches and trips; the Nimitz Museum; the Vantage Point; Mrs. Johnson's book, A White House Diary; social events; gifts to and from the Johnsons; Christmas correspondence; the Mayo Foundation; the Education Symposium at the Library and an economic seminar at the Ranch; friends, staff, and associates of the Johnsons; the LBJ Ranch; and LBJ personal information including his clothing, movies shown at the Ranch, his family, personal property, and his will. The collection includes speeches, newspaper clippings, transcripts, articles, memos, reports, letters, maps, and brochures.
