Tom Johnson's Notes of Meetings

For folder title list, see page 2.

Scope and content note:

The series entitled "Tom Johnson's Notes of Meetings" (boxes 1-4) includes notes for more than one hundred ninety White House meetings which were taken by W. Thomas Johnson. Tom Johnson served as Deputy Press Secretary under President Lyndon Johnson from October 1967 through January 1969. He started taking notes at White House meetings on a regular basis in July 1967 and continued to do so through December 1968. President Johnson attended all but one of the meetings for which there are notes in this collection.

Three fifths of the notes in this series date from 1968. Of the remaining two fifths, virtually all were taken at meetings held between July and December 1967, but five sets of notes date from June 1966 through June 1967.

The series includes notes for close to one hundred twenty meetings that President Johnson held with his senior civilian and military foreign policy advisers, including some forty five Tuesday luncheons. In addition, the collection includes notes for more than eighty meetings that President Johnson held with House and Senate leaders, correspondents, his Cabinet, the National Security Council, businessmen, and other group.

"Tom Johnson Notes of Meetings" (boxes 1-4 of the collection) are almost always the typed version of the notes. Boxes 5-10 contain the original handwritten notes for many of the meetings in boxes 1-4, and for some additional meetings that were never transcribed. Boxes 1-4 were opened in 1991; boxes 5-10 were opened between March 2016 and March 2019.

For notes similar to those included in both the groups described above but taken by individuals other than Tom Johnson, consult the Meeting Notes File, Boxes 1-3.

The remainder of the collection (a second series, Personal Files, 1965–2001) has not been processed.

Digitization note: Boxes 1 – 4 have been scanned and are available on DiscoverLBJ.org.
