PAPERS OF JOSEPHINE MITCHELL

Biographical sketch:

Josephine Gray Mitchell (1905-1996) was chairman and a member of the Texas Composers Commission Fund and a member of the Texas Federation of Music Club. She was active in the music community in Fort Worth, Texas.

Scope and content note:

This series was collected by Josephine Mitchell Scurlock while she served with the Texas Composer's Commission. It contains correspondence between her, Lady Bird Johnson, Lyndon B. Johnson, and Charles Corkran, the assistant director of the Lyndon B. Johnson Library. In addition to the correspondence, there are musical scores and publications, all related to music and dance created in the state of Texas. A large portion of the series is related to a ballet by Eugene José Singer entitled "Pedernales Myths".
