PAPERS OF ARTHUR M. OKUN

For folder title list, see page 2.

Creator: Okun, Arthur M., 1928-1980

Biographical sketch: Arthur M. Okun was an economist widely known for his formulation Okun's Law, which provides the mathematical relationship between the rate of unemployment and the gross national product. Okun served as a professor economics at Yale University, was a staff economist and Chairman with the Council of Economic Advisers, and was a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution from 1969 to 1980.

Scope and content note:

This collection includes material maintained by Arthur M. Okun throughout his professional and personal life as an economist including his position as a professor at Yale University, his service on numerous committees and commissions including Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors (CEA) under President Lyndon B. Johnson, his work as an economic consultant on Capitol Hill, and his tenure as Fellow at the Brookings Institution. These materials pertain primarily to economic matters including economic theory and policy, poverty, wage disparity, equality and efficiency, inflation, and fiscal and monetary policy.
