

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JUNE 27, 1964

OFFICE OF THE WHITE HOUSE PRESS SECRETARY

THE WHITE HOUSE

REMARKS OF MRS. L. B. JOHNSON
TO THE DEMOCRATIC-FARMER-LABOR PARTY
ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA

Friends: It is wonderful to be back in Minnesota again. I remember when we were here in the campaign of 1960. It was Turkey Day in Worthington. It was raining in sheets and there were thousands of turkeys in the streets. But in spite of all of those hazards of campaigning, you hard working DFL workers brought this State through for the Democratic Party.

Now we are back, the sun is shining, and the streets are full. Instead of turkeys they are full of what I think must have been Democrats by the way they were cheering and waving.

I want to say a word of thanks to the women from Minnesota who work so hard for our Party. I don't know three better campaigners than Muriel, Jane and Abigail. I just want to say that we are very proud, Lyndon and I, of the work that all of the women in this State do for the Party, and we know that you are proud, too.

I am so glad I got to come along.
