REMARKS BY MRS. LYNDON B. JOHNSON
BURLINGTON, VERMONT AIRPORT

What a pleasure it is to be in Vermont! Ever since Lyndon and I had such a wonderful visit last year, I have looked forward to a return trip to your beautiful state. I was so pleased to receive the gracious invitation from Governor and Mrs. Hoff to be here with you today.

What a warm and thrilling welcome. I wish Lyndon were here to share this with me, but I shall tell him about all of you. The sugar maple which we carried home last year is flourishing and the lovely painting of the sugar mill in the snow-covered grove of maples gives us great pleasure.

I am looking forward to the rest of my visit here in Burlington!
