

REMARKS BY MRS. LYNDON B. JOHNSON
ON ARRIVAL IN ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1964

How wonderful, Governor Hughes, to receive such a warm welcome here on the beautiful shoreline of New Jersey. The eyes of Texas have been upon you and all the Convention activities these past few days. I can't tell you how grateful the President and I are for the hospitality you and the people of New Jersey have given the Democrats of this Nation.

My advance agent was Luci and she has already reported, "The water's fine -- come on in."

Thank you for turning out this afternoon. I'll see you tonight in Convention Hall.
