MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY

THROUGH: S/S SWR

FROM: L - Carl F. Salans CFS

SUBJECT: Case of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan - INFORMATION
MEMORANDUM

This memorandum records the Department's activities this week in the case of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, a Jordanian national charged with the murder of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. Sirhan is currently in the custody of Sheriff Peter Pitchess of Los Angeles County. Until yesterday, Sirhan was represented by attorney Wilbur Littlefield of the California bar, a member of the Public Defender's Office. On June 20, Mr. Russell Parsons, a private California attorney, was retained by Sirhan and became attorney of record in the case.

In the course of the week, the Department has consulted with Deputy Attorney General Warren Christopher, Sheriff Pitchess and Assistant District Attorney Ritzie of Los Angeles County, Deputy Police Chief Robert Houghton of Los Angeles, and Public Defender Wilbur Littlefield.

Arab lawyers

On June 18, the press reported that influential lawyers' groups in Jordan had selected four prominent Jordanian attorneys to come to the United States to assist in Sirhan's defense. Under California law, a decision on an application by an alien attorney to practice for the purpose of this case in the Superior Court of California would lie in the discretion of the trial judge. While we doubt that any trial judge would allow an alien attorney to assume complete charge of the case, a judge would probably allow such an attorney to appear as associate counsel along with a California attorney of record.

E.O. 13292, Sec. 3.4
By JAV, NARA, Date 2-28-01

On June 18, NEA officers spoke with Jordanian Ambassador Sharaf, who expressed the view that the active entry of Jordanian lawyers into the case could create political problems in US-Jordanian relations. Ambassador Sharaf informed the Department that he had strongly advised his government to dissuade the lawyers from coming to the U.S. On June 19, according to press reports (later confirmed by Embassy Amman), Jordanian Prime Minister Talhouni met with the selected attorneys. The result of this meeting was apparently the cancelling of the group's trip and entrusting possible further action to the Arab Lawyers' Federation whose Secretary General may come to the United States "....to take part in discussion of the question" of Sirhan's defense. In response to the Department request for views, Embassy Amman has expressed its opinion that we should make no representations to the GOJ regarding the Jordanian lawyers.

We have reports that other Arab lawyers in Lebanon and Libya have announced their intention to assist Sirhan.

Consular access

On June 19, Ambassador Sharaf told Department officers that on the evening of June 18 the Honorary Consul of Jordan in Los Angeles, Mr. George Zraikat, had visited Sirhan at the prison. According to the Ambassador, Mr. Zraikat and Sirhan were required to sit on opposite sides of a glass partition and to speak through a telephone in English. Public Defender Littlefield was present throughout the conversation. The Ambassador expressed dissatisfaction with these conditions, especially the requirement for communication in English and the lack of privacy in the meeting. The Ambassador requested the Department to look into these matters.

According to Sheriff Pitchess and Public Defender Littlefield, the conditions imposed on the meeting between Mr. Zraikat and Sirhan were the normal security precautions taken at the jail and applicable to all prisoners. The requirement that visitors speak in English is also standard; the Sheriff said this was for Sirhan's protection, indicating that there have been a number of threats made against Sirhan's life. He also pointed out that both Sirhan and Mr. Zraikat speak English perfectly. The point was made to the Sheriff that United States consular officers abroad seek to communicate with imprisoned American nationals in English. Sheriff Pitchess informed us, however, that defense counsel Parsons and the trial judge agreed that all visitors should speak in English when communicating with Sirhan. If the Jordanians wanted to press the point, they should speak to Mr. Parsons. Ambassador Sharaf was advised of these developments.

CONFIDENTIAL

There exists no general international law right of privacy during communication between a consular officer and a national of the sending state, although, of course, a right of access is recognized. Privacy of communication between a prisoner and his attorney is required; and Sirhan has been permitted to meet privately with his defense counsel.

Consultations with Justice Department

We have consulted with Deputy Attorney General Christopher on these various aspects of the Sirhan case. Mr. Christopher said that he had recently visited Los Angeles, has spoken with Sheriff Pitchess, and had inspected the jail where Sirhan is being held in order to have a look at the conditions of detention, which seemed satisfactory to him.

COMMUNIST REACTION TO THE ASSASSINATION OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY

The stock portrayal of a diseased American capitalist society, increasingly driven to violence by internal conflict and increasingly corrupted by violence, dominates communist propaganda reaction worldwide to the assassination of Senator Robert Kennedy in Los Angeles on 5 June 1968. Comment playing the associated theme that use of violence as an instrument of foreign policy goes hand in hand with lawlessness at home is predictably larded with references to U.S. "aggression" in Vietnam and intensifying dissent over the war. Beyond these standard common elements, the reactions vary in accordance with the character and propaganda practices of the respective regimes.

The harshness of Moscow's indictment of U.S. society is unrelieved by elements of warmth and sympathy for the "majority" of "sober-minded" Americans that marked the Soviet response to the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963, and the Soviet propaganda reaction to the personal tragedy this time is secondary and perfunctory. Czechoslovak and Rumanian reactions stand out as exceptionally warm toward Senator Kennedy personally, East German propaganda the most blatantly offensive in its treatment of the U.S. leadership as a whole.

Hanoi takes note of Senator Kennedy's opposition to Administration policies on Vietnam but does not address itself to the impact of his death on the U.S. political scene. Vietnamese communist comment, hinting at Administration involvement in an assassination conspiracy, suggests in one instance that a motive was to forestall further probes into the circumstances of President Kennedy's death--a suggestion raised by various other media, including (briefly) Moscow and (elaborately) Havana. Almost uniformly, communist commentators reject the idea that a single individual could be held responsible.

Peking dismisses the slaying as yet another manifestation of the "dog-eat-dog" climate of a decaying, crisis-ridden society and devotes minimal propaganda attention to the subject.

COMMUNIST REACTION TO THE ASSASSINATION
OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDYUSSR: Broad-Ranging Indictment of "Sick," "Violent" America

Soviet propaganda's sweeping indictment of the American way of life pictures Senator Kennedy as a victim of vaguely defined "reactionary" forces resorting to "political gangsterism" in a desperate effort to retain control over a corrupt, disintegrating capitalist society.

Following the assassination of President Kennedy in November 1963, Moscow broadcast solemn music, numerous messages of condolence from Soviet leaders, and a flood of testimonials to the "outstanding American statesman" who had sought peace and Soviet-American cooperation. Expressions of grief and sympathy for the American people were coupled with expressions of concern lest the course of U.S.-Soviet detente be disturbed. Four and a half years later, reacting to the death of Martin Luther King, Moscow developed the theme of the "sick," "violent" society, though with numerous eulogies of the victim of the assassination; memorial meetings were held in the USSR, and Radio Moscow observed a moment of silence on the day of the funeral.* This time, censorious comment on the "vices" and "ulcers" of U.S. society almost wholly displaces expressions of grief, sympathy, concern, or personal tribute.

Apart from the differences in protocol dictated by the respective offices and roles of the men involved, the difference in atmosphere and thrust of the current propaganda may be viewed as a reflection both of the tensions in international relations and of Soviet propaganda's preoccupation with an intensified ideological struggle between the socialist and "imperialist" systems, against the background of intellectual restiveness in the USSR.

* Radio Moscow devoted roughly the same amount of its comment to Senator Kennedy's death as it did to the assassination of Dr. King, about 15 percent of total comment on all subjects, in the five days following the event. More than 30 percent of Moscow's radio comment reacted to the assassination of the President in the five days after the events in Dallas.

CONDOLENCE MESSAGES

Soviet media have publicized two formal expressions of condolence-- a message to Mrs. Kennedy from Kosygin on 7 June and a message to Vice President Humphrey on the same day from the chairmen of the Council of the Union and the Council of Nationalities of the USSR Supreme Soviet. Both express the Soviet people's "indignation" over the "wicked murder." The sole personal tribute is a reference to the Senator as an "eminent U.S. statesman" in the message to the Vice President.

Soviet commentators, in characterizing Senator Kennedy personally, refer to him neutrally as "a candidate" for the presidential nomination or as a relatively "sober-minded" or "realistic" U.S. politician--Moscow's customary description of the Senator in the past. Even these restrained tributes appear not in the form of testimonials but in the context of comment on the "atmosphere" in the United States that is said to have generated the murder.

THE THEME OF DECADENT CAPITALISM

Moscow's overriding focus on the ills of American society is reflected in the comments by Soviet cultural figures, who in 1963 wrote articles and poems in praise of the slain President. Now a long poem by Yevtushenko in PRAVDA attacks the United States as a land where there is "freedom to murder."

Moscow commentator Shakhov set the tone of Soviet propaganda in 1963 by praising the late President's efforts to ease tensions and his approach to domestic problems; the same commentator on 7 June 1968, in a widely broadcast commentary, uses the Senator's death as the take-off point for an unrelenting attack on the United States, concluding: "America's capitalist society corrupts the soul, the mind, and the heart of man. That is what the murder of Robert Kennedy highlights for us."

Developing the "sick" society theme, Moscow commentator Rubtsov describes the United States as a "political jungle" ruled by force--"a country that is trying to solve internal and external problems by criminal methods of violence, murder, and repressions." PRAVDA correspondent Korionov declares on 8 June that the assassination demonstrates "the foul essence of the world of modern capitalist America," where "political killings" are the "direct result of the well-planned course of monopoly circles."

Much of the comment takes the occasion to contrast the "violent" capitalist United States with the more disciplined Soviet state and to seek to discredit the U.S. right to world leadership. In the most widely beamed Moscow radio talk on the slaying, broadcast more than 60 times on 6 June, Viktor Glazunov asserts: "America, lauded as an example of Western democracy, appears before the world as a society of brutality and inhumanity. It is rooted in the very essence of the social system in America, in the very foundations of society.... Capitalism is fraught with violence, just as clouds are fraught with rain." Treating capitalism and violence as inseparable, Soviet commentators dismiss the question of gun-control legislation as essentially irrelevant.

A broadcast to North America, by Vladimir Afonin, asks "what sort of moral leadership a country can give if it is unable to protect its own political figures from assassination.... To the world, the American way of life now looks like the American way of death." Moscow domestic service commentator Babich asserts that "the most powerful and rich capitalist country in the world has no inspiring national aims, no ideals to capture the minds and hearts of the people and encourage them to accomplish great deeds." Babich directs an obvious pitch to youth: "What can such bellicose, reactionary ideology give millions of Americans, particularly young ones, who on the very threshold of their conscious life encounter profound dissatisfaction with the cult of profit taking root in their country, and encounter the cult of business, the dollar, and violence?" In contrast to the violence and decadence of capitalism, Vladimir Tregubov reassures domestic listeners, communism in the Soviet Union follows "entirely different laws, in conditions of a truly socialist democracy."

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CRIME

Soviet commentators place the responsibility for the assassination on "reactionary circles" and an amorphous conspiracy, usually suggesting that the Senator's comparatively "realistic" views on Vietnam and civil rights were motivating factors. TASS commentator Igor Orlov notes on 7 June that the victims of such crimes are generally leaders who oppose "rabid militarism and racism." On 8 June IZVESTIYA's political commentator Matveyev, remarking that the assassination of Senator Kennedy took place during a time of domestic and foreign political crisis, observes:

"He was in somebody's way, so he was removed by the most extreme means." IZVESTIYA commentator Kudryavtsev charges that U.S. political circles who "directed the hand" of the assassin "clearly aimed at the Vietnam policy Senator Kennedy intended to pursue if he had become President."

Mikhail Strogovich, a Soviet lawyer, in a broadcast to North America advances the theory that Senator Kennedy was killed because if he had been elected President he would have been in position to reopen the investigation of his brother's murder. This notion is not generally aired in Soviet comment, but Moscow propagandists are insistent on the point--as expressed at the conclusion of Strogovich's talk--that whatever the precise motive, the assassination "cannot be the accidental deed of an unbalanced person acting on his own."

Combining the conspiracy theme with an indictment of U.S. officialdom collectively, Korionov writes in the 8 June PRAVDA that "the shots in Dallas, Memphis, and Los Angeles were not the work of individual terrorists. They were possible first of all because forces are governing the country which stop at nothing in their intention to do away with everything that does not suit them." In a similar vein, Vladimir Paramonov writes in LIFE ABROAD that "the new American tragedy is one more indictment against the ruling circles of this power."

Apart from some references to Mayor Yorty of Los Angeles, to "fascist" organizations, and to "certain local government officials" in Los Angeles as typifying the extreme "reactionary" element, the "forces" and "circles" Moscow indicts are left vaguely identified and impersonal. President Johnson's statements and appointment of an investigative commission are reported without comment.

NATIONALITY OF THE SUSPECT

Soviet media have displayed predictable sensitivity to the fact that the suspect is an Arab immigrant. Radio Moscow did not acknowledge the arrest until 7 June, when it identified the suspect only as "Sirhan Sirhan, a Palestine Arab," and declined to speculate on his motives. On the same day, IZVESTIYA's Kondrashov accused the U.S. press of "playing on the Arab origin of the assassin" and on evidence of his "anti-Israeli attitudes" in order to shift the blame from the American way of life, "the real guilty party in the tragedy."

In a domestic service roundtable discussion on 9 June, Radio Moscow's Viktor Shragin charges that although the suspect lived "all his conscious life" in the United States, U.S. officials are trying to present him as "some kind of Arab nationalist" and are hinting that "the Reds are implicated." Calling this "an old ruse," Shragin notes a parallel with the assassination of President Kennedy in 1963, when charges of communist connections were made against Lee Harvey Oswald. IZVESTIYA's Matveyev similarly discounts allegations by Mayor Yorty that "communists were involved" in the slaying. TASS commentator Orlov notes that a U.S. Communist Party spokesman has "described Yorty's statements as a crude attempt to mislead the public in an effort to prevent a real investigation of this dirty affair and the plot behind it."

In its broadcasts to the Middle East, Moscow has publicized Kosygin's condolences and stressed the general theme of the violent capitalist society that corrupts U.S. policy at home and abroad. Sirhan Sirhan is not mentioned in available Moscow broadcasts in Arabic.

EFFECTS OF ASSASSINATION

Moscow has generally refrained so far from comment on the effects the Senator's death might have on U.S. domestic or foreign policy. PRAVDA's New York correspondents Vasilyev and Kurdyumov suggest on 11 June that there may be an effort to exploit indignation over the slaying to "take antidemocratic measures and persecute the progressive forces." In the only other available comment addressed directly to the possible consequences of the slaying, a Kondrashov article in IZVESTIYA on 8 June says it would appear that Nixon and Humphrey will be nominated, which will "leave many Americans who are dissatisfied with the Vietnam adventure no real choice." Neither Radio Moscow nor TASS carried this article.

Varied Reactions From East European Media

East European media respond with varying degrees of sympathy and expressions of shock, generally echo Moscow's portrayal of Senator Kennedy as the victim of vaguely identified "reactionary forces" in a "sick society," and largely ignore or play down the role of the murder suspect. The Czechoslovak and Rumanian reactions emerge, overall, as the most sympathetic. Yugoslav comment contains personal tributes to Senator Kennedy, along with censure of the evils of U.S. society. Polish, Hungarian, and Bulgarian comment most closely parallels Moscow's, while

East Germany's is the most blatantly hostile in its assault on the United States.

Prague media on 6 June publicized condolence messages or statements by President Svoboda, First Secretary Dubcek, Premier Cernik, Foreign Minister Hajek, National Assembly Chairman Smrkovsky, and Czechoslovak Ambassador Duda. Prague radio quoted Cernik as stating that the Senator's death had shaken him personally as well as all Czechs, and CTK cited Foreign Minister Hajek's expression of concern that his death could have an unfavorable effect on the "realistic and peace-loving forces" in the United States. Rumanian Premier Ceausescu's telegram to Mrs. Kennedy, reported by AGERPRES on 7 June, expresses grief over the death of an "eminent statesman, leader of American public life," and Bucharest media that day publicized Foreign Minister Manescu's tribute to the Senator at the U.N. General Assembly session over which he presided. Tito's message to the widow expresses great personal shock at the tragedy, calling the Senator's death "an irreparable loss to the American people and to world peace."

By contrast, Ulbricht's condolences to Mrs. Kennedy, carried by the East German news agency ADN on 6 June, are replete with an attack on the "powerful extreme reactionary circles which, in order to enforce their antihumanistic and antidemocratic objectives, are increasingly murdering their political adversaries."

THE "SICK SOCIETY"

The Budapest MAGYAR HIRLAP on 8 June headlines its editorial "Sick Society." The Budapest NEPSAVA on 8 June broadly indicts the whole U.S. leadership, declaring "the conclusion is inevitable that the supreme leadership bears responsibility for the atmosphere of bloody murders." Comment in the Warsaw TRYBUNA LUDU calls "the atmosphere of intolerance, chauvinism, nationalist pride, and social conservatism" the source "of a real American tragedy." Warsaw's comment, like Moscow's, speaks of explosion of the "myth" of American democracy, and comment from Sofia follows the standard line in denigrating the image of a free, democratic American society.

Comment from both Czechoslovakia and Rumania brings up the theme of capitalist decadence and disease, but the propaganda on this score is more limited and more restrained from both countries than from Moscow or the other East European bloc countries.

THE MOTIVES AND THE SUSPECT

East European media generally define the motive as removal of a man who disagreed with Administration policies. The Budapest MAGYAR NEMZET on 8 June is atypical in pointing out that, as attorney general, Senator Kennedy was privy to an extraordinary number of secrets: "They wanted to get rid of Robert Kennedy because he knew too much." Sofia's ZEMEDEL'SKO ZNAME, playing the more general theme that the motive was "to intimidate opponents of the aggressive course of the United States," is unique in suggesting that one specific objective was to impede the course of the U.S.-DRV talks in Paris.

East Germany insinuates in an authoritative commentary that President Johnson was somehow involved. A NEUES DEUTSCHLAND editorial article states on 7 June: "As for Johnson himself, perhaps he and his clan were afraid that a President Robert Kennedy might have had the true causes of the murder of John F. Kennedy investigated. So let us ask, who profits?" The article also complains that "imperialist circles," by alleging that an Arab killed Senator Kennedy, are trying to "distract the ghost of suspicion from the organizers of the murder and shift it to the main bastion of world socialism."

Polish media display some sensitivity to the background of the murder suspect. The 7 June TRYBUNA LUDU charges that U.S. publicity media are playing up the line that Sirhan Sirhan committed the crime because he is "a Jordanian nationalist"--a theory of "nationalist motives" which, the paper says, is unsupported by any evidence and has created "understandable indignation" among African and Middle East delegations at the United Nations. The Slovak Communist Party daily PRAVDA questions whether we can now believe that Sirhan Sirhan was acting from "feelings of Arab nationalism, since after five years we do not have the complete facts about the murder of President Kennedy." Rumania, for whom the question of the murder suspect would be especially sensitive, copes with the problem by ignoring it: There is no reference to the identity of the suspect in available comment.

Yugoslav commentators subscribe to the "conspiracy" theory that Senator Kennedy was murdered by reactionary rightwing forces which opposed his progressive views.

The Albanians, characteristically, present the assassination as a product of a monopoly capitalist system in a state of advanced crisis.

Hanoi Sees "Political Murder" of Administration Opponent

Hanoi and Liberation Radio both broadcast reports on 5 June on the shooting of Senator Kennedy, noted his death on the 6th, and in subsequent comment have drawn the standard picture of a "reactionary and rotten" U.S. society. A NHAN DAN commentary on the 7th goes so far as to state that assassinations "occur daily and are regarded as common events." The article adds that "the assassinations of the Kennedy brothers demonstrate the increasingly serious conflicts among American capitalists, while the murders of Luther King and other progressive U.S. people and the repression of the masses clearly point to the ever-sharpening contradictions between the laboring people and the capitalist class in the United States."

Some of Hanoi's reports on the assassination point out that Senator Kennedy was an opponent of the Administration's policies--"especially its Vietnam policy." And comment on U.S. policies, including a 7 June NHAN DAN Commentator article, cites statements by the late Senator to attack the U.S. position. The Commentator article claims that "the average American" found Senator Kennedy's assessment of the Saigon regime "more credible" than the Administration's, adding that this helped Kennedy in the primaries and "people rightly think this is precisely why Robert Kennedy has been dealt with--as his elder brother John was--by an assassin's bullets instead of by election votes." However, consistent with Hanoi's propaganda position that differences over Vietnam in the U.S. leadership are essentially superficial, the 7 June NHAN DAN commentary notes that the Senator did not favor withdrawing U.S. troops from South Vietnam, although he "stood for a peaceful settlement of the Vietnam problem" and "recognizing the NFLSV."

Responsibility of the Johnson Administration for the assassination is suggested broadly by Hanoi, more directly by Liberation Radio. An initial report on the assassination, carried by both Hanoi and Liberation Radio, recalls the assassination of President Kennedy, notes that President Johnson succeeded to the presidency and that Robert Kennedy was his "most redoubtable" Democratic opponent, and comments that "in the race for position and interests, the ruling cliques, representing the various factions of the U.S. monopoly capitalist class, have not hesitated to resort to bloodshed and fire to liquidate one another." The 7 June NHAN DAN commentary, mentioning the arrest of the murder suspect, ridicules the idea that the murder was not the result of a conspiracy and asserts that it "doubtless was a political assassination." The paper sees "similarities" between Senator Kennedy's death and that of President Kennedy, saying "it was rumored" that Robert Kennedy, if elected President, would "bring the John Kennedy murder to light to avenge his brother." NHAN DAN adds: "People also expressed the opinion that the recent murder of Robert Kennedy might be the goal of those who wished to avoid dramatic consequences for themselves."

A 7 June Liberation Radio commentary, stating that "the person who masterminded" the assassination of President Kennedy "is yet to be found," also points to a similarity between the assassinations and asserts that "public opinion is looking for the person who masterminded this new assassination." Liberation Radio adds that "not a few people have posed questions about the role of Johnson in this murder case."

Peking Points to Deepening Crisis of "U.S. Imperialism"

CPR propaganda has devoted only negligible attention to the assassination. An NCNA report of Senator Kennedy's death on 7 June is followed by an NCNA commentary, broadcast 12 times, viewing the assassination in stock terms as still another manifestation of "the deepening political and economic crisis of U.S. imperialism." Observing that American politicians are currently engaged in a "dog-eat-dog" struggle for their respective parties' nominations, the NCNA commentary says it is standard practice to "knife each other in the back."

North Korea's reaction is essentially similar, a Pyongyang domestic service broadcast on 7 June recalling that President Kennedy, too, was shot when he was "campaigning for reelection as President, clinging to the policies of aggression and war." It concludes that "this shows how frantically the bosses of U.S. imperialism are running wild in their dogfight for power...."

Cuban Comment Plays Up Conspiracy Theory

Havana commentators play up alleged efforts to "conceal the truth" about the assassination. There are recollections of the 1963 events, charges that CIA involvement is probable, and repeated efforts to suggest White House involvement. A typical commentary in the domestic service rejects the "naive" theory that the murderer was a lone "fanatic," since the Senator's death brought "many benefits to the Democratic Party and, within the Democratic Party, many benefits to President Johnson's candidate, Hubert Humphrey." In a similar vein, another Havana broadcast cites the Garrison investigations into the assassination of President Kennedy, alleges that "the name of President Johnson began to crop up" in these investigations, and concludes that the answer to the question "who benefits from the death of another Kennedy?" should be sought "in Washington, in the White House." Havana comment on 6 June, while the Senator still lay wounded, noted that "trial balloons" were being sent up on President Johnson's "possible candidacy" for reelection.

"Imperialist propaganda" is accused of vainly seeking scapegoats for the murder. The Voice of America is quoted as having tried to link the "presumed murderer with communist organizations." Pointing out that the accused "Jordanian" was "from the occupied zone of Jerusalem," a commentary in the domestic service says "North American propaganda" is trying to "make public opinion believe Kennedy's murder was due to the nationalist sentiments of an Arab." The commentator suggests that an effort is being made to exploit the coincidence of the assassination with the anniversary of "Israel's aggression against the Arab states."

Insisting that the assassination was "not an isolated act," Havana calls it "the natural product of a society in full decomposition, convulsed by violence, by a criminal violence, whose most prominent conveyers are the men who make up the clique of war criminals holding the power in Washington." There are the predictable linkages to the war in Vietnam, "where the United States without any right uses force in its most brutal forms." Commenting on President Johnson's statement following the shooting, one propagandist says the President "has no right to condemn violence because he is the first to use it, raising it to the level of the mainstay of his foreign policy."

STATEMENT BY AMBASSADOR W. AVERELL HARRIMAN ON THE DEATH OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY

Senator Robert F. Kennedy was one of the most gallant men I have ever known. He was fearless. He faced facts squarely. It was impossible for him not to tell the truth as he saw it. I think that is why some people thought he was ruthless. At times the truth is ruthless. He supported the causes he believed in regardless of the enemies he knew that he would make. But few men have won the deep respect and affection of so many. Negroes and other minorities knew that he had accepted their cause as his own.

If he had been elected President, he would have been a great President. He shared with President Kennedy many of his inspired decisions. He understood the problems of our time, and in some capacity he would have played a major role in forwarding the greatness of our country in which he had such deep faith. Our country has suffered an irreparable loss.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FOR THE PRESS

JUNE 6, 1968

NO. 133

STATEMENT BY THE HONORABLE DEAN RUSK
SECRETARY OF STATE
ON THE DEATH OF SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY

The tragic death of Senator Robert Kennedy is a grievous national loss, and one which I myself feel very deeply.

As members of the Kennedy Administration, we worked very closely together as colleagues in the Cabinet and in the National Security Council.

Robert Kennedy had a very deep concern about world affairs and made many important contributions to our foreign relations, both through his counsel here in Washington and in his visits abroad.

Today the entire world shares our grief, a grief which is made even more poignant because these two remarkable brothers have both fallen to the assassin's bullet. We must not indict an entire people because of the wanton acts of certain violent individuals.

The American people are a decent, wholesome, generous, and dedicated people who want to establish peace in the world and equality and social justice here at home. But we have much unfinished business to which President Johnson has fully committed himself from the very day on which he assumed the Presidency. I know that John and Robert Kennedy would expect all of us to address ourselves to this unfinished business with all the wisdom and energy we can possibly muster.

MEMORANDUM FOR WALT ROSTOW

June 7, 1968 5:10 p.m. 8

SUBJECT: Fifteen Invitations to the Senator Kennedy Interment

Larry Eagleburger tells me that Nick Katzenbach has allotted 15 invitations for members of the White House staff, the NSC staff and the BoB to attend the interment. Larry thought that you and Mrs. Rostow would take 2 and that General and Mrs. Maxwell Taylor would take 2.

Referring to a phone conversation with you this morning, Larry said that only bearers of the letter invitation (to be issued by us) would be allowed at the site of the interment -- in addition, of course, to those who return from New York as part of the cortege.

Larry also tells me that additional invitations might be obtained, if we really needed them.

Other guidance from Nick Katzenbach, per Larry, is that the determining criterion for invitation is closeness to the Senator and not rank per se.

I've attached the type of letter that we shall prepare for those invited -- one letter per person.

What we need to move ahead is guidance on whom to invite. Hearsay from Larry is that Joe Califano and Barefoot Sanders, maybe others, have been invited directly by the Kennedy family and hence would not need one of the 15 invitations.

Lou Schwartz

June 7, 1968

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have been authorized to invite the bearer of this letter to the interment of Senator Robert F. Kennedy. This letter constitutes such an invitation.

Walt W. Eastow

INSTRUCTIONS

Go to the Pentagon North Parking Lot by 3:30 p.m., Saturday, June 8. You may present this letter as entry to a military bus which will take you to the site of the interment and then return you to the Pentagon North Parking Lot at the end of the interment.

1. CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S LEADERSHIP LED NATION IN EXPRESSING SORROW OVER KENNEDY DEATH AND SYMPATHY FOR FAMILY. SVOBODA, DUBCEK AND HAJEK SENT SYMPATHY TELEGRAMS TO ETHEL KENNEDY AND SMRKOVSKY WIRE US SENATE, PRESIDENT CONVEYING NATIONAL ASSEMBLY'S DEEP EMOTION AND INDIGNATION OVER EVENT, OFFERING HIS OWN AND ALL DEPUTIES' PROFOUND CONDOLENCES. CERNIK ISSUED FOLLOWING PUBLIC STATEMENT: "ROBERT KENNEDY'S DEATH CAME AS A DEEP SHOCK TO ME AND CERTAINLY TO ALL OUR PEOPLE. I SHOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS MY DEEPEST SYMPATHIES TO SENATOR KENNEDY'S FAMILY, THE AMERICAN GOVERNMENT AND THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES." EMBASSY RECEIVING NUMEROUS TELEGRAMS AND LETTERS FROM BOTH INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS, AND HUNDREDS HAVE SIGNED CONDOLENCE BOOK IN LIBRARY.

2. HAJEK MADE THIS POLITICAL APPRAISAL IN CTK INTERVIEW: "THE OBJECTIVE EFFECT OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY'S MURDER IS UNFAVORABLE FOR THE REALISTIC AND PEACE-LOVING FORCES IN THE US, ALTHOUGH THE REACTION OF THE AMERICAN PUBLIC CANNOT BE ESTIMATED AS YET. AFTER THE MURDER OF HIS BROTHER AND DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, IT IS ANOTHER TRAGIC EVENT WHICH MEANS THAT A PERSONALITY WITH A CERTAIN POSITIVE PROGRAM ENDS BY

VIOLENT DEATH. THIS CANNOT BUT CAUSE A FEELING OF SURPRISE AND CONDEMNATION. 3. ASSASSINATION AGAIN LEAD STORY IN TODAY'S PRESS. NEWS COVERAGE HEAVY WITH EXTENSIVE PICKUPS FROM AMERICAN AND OTHER FOREIGN SOURCES. MANY EDITORIALS CONTINUE TO BELABOR RIGHTIST CONSPIRACY THEME AS WELL AS CONDEMNING "SICK" US SOCIETY. RUDE PRAVO'S JAROSLAV BOUCEK FULMINATES THAT "FANATIC WHO SHOOTS MEANS MORE IN AMERICAN SOCIETY THAN 6 MILLION VOTERS. THE NATIONALITY OR RELIGION OF MURDERERS LIKE SIRHAN, OSWALD, RUBY OR THE STILL UNKNOWN MURDERER OF KING IS ABSOLUTELY SECONDARY. THE MAIN THING IS WHAT LINKS THEM. THE MILLIONS PROTESTING AGAINST WAR, HATRED, AND SOCIAL INJUSTICES HAVE RECEIVED THE SAME ANSWER FOR THE THIRD TIME. THE PRESIDENTIAL THRONE OF THE USA IS STAINED WITH BLOOD--MORE TERRIBLY THAN MACBETH'S THRONE, AND THE WAY TO IT STINKS OF GUNPOWDER. HOW MANY OF THOSE WHO START OUT ON THE PATH MARKED BY THE DEAD BODIES OF THE IRISH BROTHERS AND THE BLACK PASTOR WILL END WITH A BULLET IN THEIR HEADS?" PRACE ASSERTS US SOCIAL SYSTEM PERMITS WELL-DEVELOPED RIGHT-WING FANATICISM TO EXIST, AND SAYS "STLMYG#FEARS" AROUSED THAT POLITICAL MURDER MIGHT BECOME SYSTEMATIC METHOD OF POLITICAL STRUGGLE IN COUNTRY REGARDED AS MOST ADVANCED IN WORLD. THIS, PAPER SAYS, WOULD BE GREATEST OF ALL AMERICAN TRAGEDIES. LIDOVA DEMOKRACIE IN MORE BALANCED AND SOBER EDITORIAL SAYS ASSASSINATION MANIFESTS TENDENCY TO SEEK SOLUTION TO VEXED QUESTIONS BY VIOLENCE INSTEAD OF REASONED ARGUMENT, AND THIS THREATENS NOT ONLY US BUT WHOLE "HOUSE OF DEMOCRACY...WHETHER DIFFERENCE OF OPINION ARE IN CYPRUS, MIDDLE EAST, VIET-NAM, CALIFORNIA OR EVEN IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA."

1. LEAD STORY IN JUNE 7 PRESS IS DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY. MESSAGE OF CONDOLENCE FROM ACTING FOREIGN MINISTER WINIEWICZ TO MRS. KENNEDY IS REPORTED. BOTH IN COMMENTARIES AND IN NEWS STORIES THERE ARE TRACES OF SOME EMBARRASSMENT AND EVEN DEFENSIVENESS IN TREATMENT OF SIRHAN AND HIS MOTIVES. DEATH OF FIGURE WELL-KNOWN AND LIKED IN POLAND APPARENTLY AT HANDS OF ARAB NATIONALIST SIMPLY DOES NOT FIT INTO POLISH PROPAGANDA PICTURE EITHER OF US OR OF ALLEGED WORLD ZIONIST CONSPIRACY. THUS, STORIES AND COMMENTARIES MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO FIND DIRECT LINKS BETWEEN DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY AND DEATHS OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING, AND TRYBUNA LUDU HEADLINE SPEAKS ALREADY OF "CAMPAIGN OF LIES BY AMERICAN RADIO AND TV CONCERNING MOTIVES OF MURDER."

2. OTHER ITEMS IN JUNE 7 PRESS INCLUDE REPORT OF POLISH CULTURAL DELEGATION TO HANOI HEADED BY FONMIN DEPT DIR ZULAWSKI AND INTERVIEW BY FRENCH CP POLITBURO MEMBER GEORGES MARCHAIS WITH ZYCIE WARSZAWY (ZW) ON FRENCH INTERNAL SITUATION. IN RESPONSE TO SURPRISINGLY FRANK QUESTIONS BY ZW CORRESPONDENT KOLODZIEJCZYK, MARCHAIS GAVE CAUTIOUS AND STEREOTYPED REPLIES.

SUBJ: PUBLIC REACTIONS TO THE ASSASSINATION OF SEN ROBERT KENNEDY.

1. SUMMARY - ALL MOROCCAN PAPERS HEADLINED REPORTS OF SHOOTING OF SEN KENNEDY AND HIS DEATH JUNE 6. COVERAGE HAS BEEN EXTENSIVE, DRAWN MOSTLY FROM AFP AND AMERICAN WIRE SERVICES. THERE HAS BEEN NO EDITORIAL COMMENT THUS FAR. END SUMMARY.

2. FRENCH LANGUAGE "LA VIGIE" AND "PETIT MAROCAIN" COVERAGE OF KENNEDY ASSASSINATION GAVE PROMINENT PLACE TO STATEMENTS OF FONMIN LARAKI AND KING HASSAN EXPRESSING INDIGNATION AND SYMPATHY (SEE RABAT 4545 AND 4557) AND ALSO INCLUDED NUMEROUS NEWS SERVICES REPORTS ON CIRCUMSTANCES OF ASSASSINATION, REACTIONS OF PROMINENT PEOPLE, BACKGROUND OF ACCUSED SIRHAN SIRHAN, AND STATEMENT OF ATTORNEY GENERAL CLARK. "PETIT MAROCAIN" JUNE 7 HEADLINED QUOTE ASSASSINATION OF KENNEDY - AN ISOLATED ACT UNQUOTE AND EMPHASIZED THAT NO FOREIGN GOVERNMENT IMPLICATED. PAPER ALSO CARRIED 1) STATEMENT BY MOHAMMED MEHDI, SECRETARY, ACTION COMMITTEE ON ARAB-AMERICAN RELATIONS, SAYING THAT WHILE ACT OF SIRHAN IS APPALLING AND INDEFENSIBLE, IT QUOTE REFLECTS THE FRUSTRATION OF A GOOD NUMBER OF ARABS VIS-A-VIS AMERICAN POLITICAL FIGURES WHO HAVE SOLD ARAB PEOPLE OF PALESTINE TO ZIONIST JEWISH VOTERS UNQUOTE; 2) DECLARATION BY PLO PRESIDENT YEHIA HAMMOUDA DENYING ANY CONNECTION BETWEEN HIS ORGANIZATION AND SIRHAN; AND 3) INQUIRING-REPORTER TYPE STORY ILLUSTRATING WIDE-SPREAD SHOCK AND SYMPATHY FOR KENNEDY IN CASABLANCA.

3. ISTIQLAL FRENCH LANGUAGE DAILY "L'OPINION" SUGGESTED IN FRONT PAGE STORY JUNE 6 THAT KENNEDY WAS VICTIM OF MAFFIA OR CRIME SYNDI-

CATE PLOT. ON JUNE 7, HOWEVER, AFTER IDENTIFY OF ACCUSED ASSASSIN CONFIRMED, PAPER SHIFTED ITS LINE BY GIVING PROMINENT PLAY TO AFF STORY FROM NEW YORK SUGGESTING THAT KENNEDY'S PRO-ISRAEL SPEECH IN OREGON MAY 26 MAY HAVE BEEN REASON FOR SIRHAN'S ACTION. L'OPINION" ALSO CARRIED STATEMENTS BY MEHDI AND HAMMOUNDA CITED ABOVE.

4. ARABIC LANGUAGE DAILIES "AL ANBA" (SEMI-OFFICIAL) AND "AL ALAM" (ISTIQLAL) HAVE ALSO REFRAINED FROM EDITORIAL COMMENT THUS FAR. "AL ANBA" AND RTM HAVE CARRIED STRAIGHT FACTUAL ACCOUNTS PUT TOGETHER FROM NEWS SERVICE STORIES. ALTHOUGH ALL PAPERS HAVE INCLUDED STORIES IDENTIFYING ACCUSED ASSASSIN AS COMING FROM PALESTINE, ONLY "AL ALAM" HAS HEADLINED THIS INFORMATION, INCLUDING FACT THAT SIRHAN'S FATHER BISHARA IS A "CATHOLIC ARAB". "AL ALAM" JUNE 7 ALSO CARRIED COMMENTS BY NEW ORLEANS PROSECUTOR JIM GARRISON AND POLISH NEWSPAPER IMPLICATIONS THAT ROBERT KENNEDY MAY HAVE BEEN KILLED BECAUSE HE KNEW TOO MUCH ABOUT HIS BROTHER'S DEATH.

5. KENNEDY ASSASSINATION HAS BEEN MAJOR TOPIC OF PUBLIC INTEREST, COMPLETELY OVERSHADOWING CURRENT VISIT OF LIBYAN PRINCE BAKKUSH AND ANNIVERSARY OF JUNE 5 ARAB-ISRAELI WAR AS SUBJECT OF GENERAL DISCUSSION. UNIVERSAL REACTION HAS BEEN SHOCK, DISMAY, SADNESS, AND SYMPATHY FOR KENNEDY FAMILY. TASCA

1. THE NEWS OF THE DEATH OF ROBERT KENNEDY HAS SHOCKED HONDURAS AND DOMINATED ITS NEWS MEDIA. MANY COMMENTATORS SAY HIS DEATH INDICATES THAT SOMETHING IS SERIOUSLY WRONG WITH AMERICA AND SPECULATE THAT THE SHOOTING IS THE RESULT OF A RIGHTIST CONSPIRACY.
2. EL CRONISTA WHICH CALLED KENNEDY THE "MOST RECENT HOPE OF LATIN AMERICA" SAW HIM AS "THE VICTIM OF REACTIONARY PLOTTERS, THE KLU KLUX KLAN, AND THE COSA NOSTRA," AND SAID "THE BULLET WHICH KILLED ROBERT KENNEDY WAS DIRECTED INTELLECTUALLY BY THE SAME DIABOLICAL MINDS WHICH KILLED JOHN KENNEDY AND MARTIN LUTHER KING."
3. LIBERAL LA PRENSA OF SAN PEDRO SULA SAID THE MURDERS OF BOTH KENNEDYS AND MARTIN LUTHER KING WERE "ORGANIZED BY THOSE WHO DO NOT WANT AMERICAN SOCIETY RADICALLY CHANGED" BUT PREDICTED THAT THESE CRIMES "CANNOT PREVENT THIS CHANGE TO A NEW AND BETTER SOCIETY."
4. EL PUEBLO, LIBERAL PARTY ORGAN, WHICH THREE WEEKS AGO HAD EDITORIALY CALLED ROBERT KENNEDY "THE BEST HOPE OF THE DEMOCRATIC FORCES OF LATIN AMERICA" SAID THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT HE WAS KILLED BECAUSE HE FAVORED "CLOSING THE GAP WHICH SEPARATES THE NEGROES FROM WHITE, RICH FROM POOR, ONE GENERATION FROM ANOTHER." IT LINKED THE MURDERS OF THE KENNEDYS AND MARTIN LUTHER KING AS PART OF A STRUGGLE BETWEEN THE FORCES OF GOOD AND EVIL IN THE U.S.

1. SHOOTING AND DEATH OF ROBERT KENNEDY CONTINUE TO MONOPOLIZE FRONT PAGES OF ALL LOCAL PAPERS AND DOMINATE CONVERSATION HERE.
2. PRESS COMMENTARY HAS BEEN UNUSUALLY HEAVY FOR LUXEMBOURG. INITIAL REACTIONS TENDED TO EMPHASIZE ALLEGED POLITICAL ASPECT OF SHOOTING. LATE SENATOR'S LIBERAL POLICIES WERE COMPARED WITH THOSE OF JOHN KENNEDY AND MARTIN KING, WITH IMPLICATION ALL THREE KILLINGS WERE RESULT OF REACTIONARY PLOTS. EQUALLY STRESSED WAS THEME OF AMERICAN VIOLENCE AND QUICKNESS TO REACH FOR GUNS TO SETTLE POLITICAL DISPUTES. NORMALLY ANTI-AMERICAN COMMENTATORS PRESENTED THIS AS PARTICULARLY AMERICAN PHENOMENON, WHILE MORE FRIENDLY PRESS WENT ON TO GENERALIZE AND SOUND ALARM OVER WORLD-WIDE TREND TOWARD DISORDER AND SOCIAL BREAKDOWN.
3. AS CIRCUMSTANCES SURROUNDING KILLING BECAME CLEARER, PARTICULARLY IN WAKE OF SENATOR'S DEATH, COMMENT TENDED TO MODERATE SOMEWHAT, STRESSING EXPRESSIONS OF GRIEF AND LOSS TO WORLD. READY ACCESSABILITY OF GUNS IN US, HOWEVER, CONTINUED TO BE SPOTLIGHTED AS TARGET OF SCATHING CRITICISM. FREQUENTLY NOTED IN PERSONAL COMMENT TO EMBASSY PERSONNEL BY LUXEMBOURGERS, IS FACT THAT SUSPECTED KILLER IS EVIDENTLY NOT US CITIZEN.
4. EVIDENT THROUGHOUT HAS BEEN FACT THAT KENNEDY NAME HAS LOST NONE OF ITS CACHET IN LUXEMBOURG AND THAT LUXEMBOURGERS ARE CONVINCED ROBERT KENNEDY WOULD HAVE SUCCEEDED IN SOLVING AMERICAN AND WIDER PROBLEMS WHOSE SOLUTION HAS SO FAR ELUDED OTHERS.

5. TELEGRAM RECEIVED FROM DIR COMMUNITY CENTER AT GUGULETUS COMMUNITY (AFRICAN LOCATION CT) READS AS FOLLOWS: "GUGULETU DEEPLY MOURNS DEAT OF AMERICA'S ROYAL SON ROBERT KENNEDY".

6. BURGER STORY "TWO YEARS AGO AT STELLENBOSCH" RECALLS: KENNEDY VISIT THERE AND REPORTS PREFECT OF MEN'S HOSTEL, SIMONSBURG, WILL SEND CONDOLENCE CABLE TO MRS KENNEDY ON BEHALF RESIDENTS.

7. CAPE TIMES ROUNDED UP COMMENTS ON CAUSES OF ASSASSINATION FROM PARLIAMENTARIANS, WHO VOICED IDEAS SUMMARIZED AS FOLLOWS: TOO MANY PEOPLE REACHING "FRUSTRATION TOLERANCE" TOO EASILY, EAST HAVE INCREASING INFLUENCE ON WEST, SPIRIT OF RECKLESSNESS AND IRRESPONSIBILITY PERMEATING WORLD, AND PEOPLE BEING LED INTO VIOLENCE IN SEARCH OF NEW MEANING IN LIVES. THOSE COMMENTING WERE PAUL VAN DERI MERWE, D VAN DEN HEEVER AND D CARR OF NP, CATHERINE TAYLOR, DR G JACOBS AND A HOPEWELL OF UP, AND SUZMANI OF PROGRESSIVES.

8. EDITORIAL REACTIONS JUNE 7:

A. CAPE TIMES ASSESSED ABILITY OF MEN OF KENNEDY FAMILY TO "LOOK AT THINGS AFRESH" IN GRAPPLING WITH NEED FOR "DYNAMIC CHANGE", AND SUGGESTED THAT SENATOR KENNEDY CARRIED EVEN "MORE HOPES" FOR THIS THAN PRESIDENT KENNEDY. "HIS KIND OF THINKING WAS CLEAR; HE WAS ON THE SIDE OF PEOPLE-- NOT 'THE PEOPLE' ... BUT PEOPLE, HUMAN BEINGS, MEN AND WOMEN, BLACK OR WHITE, POOR OR RICH". NOTED PROFOUND DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THIS OUTLOOK AND THAT OF "MANY POLITICIANS ... FOR TENDENCY AMONG MEN WHO HAVE BEEN IN POWER FOR SOME TIME IS TO CONSIDER THE SYSTEM IMPORTANT, ALMOST SACROSANCT. SOME CONSERVATISM IS ALWAYS NECESSARY. BUT IN REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD LIKE PRESENT IT IS PERILOUS IF OVERDONE... MANY OF US EXPECTED ENOUGH (OF KENNEDYS) TO MAKE US BEWEP THESE MURDERS, EVEN BEYOND THEIR POIGNANCY AS HUMAN TRAGEDIES."

B. ARGUS POINTED OUT FEAR OF MANY SAFRICANS AT MOUNTING SUPPORT FOR SENATOR'S CANDIDACY, BUT SAID "EVIDENCE SUGGESTS HE WOULD HAVE BEEN REALISTIC AND EFFECTIVE PRESIDENT WHO WOULD HAVE RESISTED PRESSURES FOR IMPRACTICABLE 'SOLUTIONS' TO RACIAL PROBLEMS". ILLUSTRATED THIS CONTENTION BY FACT SENATOR CAME TO SAFRICA TO SEE FOR HIMSELF, AND ALTHOUGH HE FOUND APARTHEID REPUGNANT, HIS OBJECTIONS TO IT DID NOT CLOUD HIS JUDGMENT, AND HE SAID CATEGORICALLY THAT SA NO THREAT TO PEACE. MOREOVER HE CAME OUT AGAINST ECONOMIC SANCTIONS AND URGED CONTINUING DIALOGUE.

C. BURGER LINKS ASSASSIN WITH "TERRORISTS", HOPING COMMISSION ON VIOLENCE WILL LEAD USG TO UNCONDITIONAL CONDEMNATION OF TERRORISM. SAYS NO DOUBT THERE WILL BE PEOPLE IN WORLD WHO WOULD REGARD ASSASSIN AS "FREEDOM FIGHTER". BUT BETTER DESCRIPTION IS "DEVILSIN CRIMINAL, WHOSE SHOTS NOT ONLY WOUNDED HIS VICTIM, BUT ALSO AMERICAN CIVILIZATION". RHETORICALLY ASKS DIFFERENCE BETWEEN HIM AND TRAINED TERRORISTS IN SOUTHERN AFRICA. BY CONDONING THEIR DEED INCREASING SPIRIT OF VIOLENCE IN WORLD CANNOT BE HALTED.

9. CONSIDERABLE PRESS ATTENTION TO EFFECT OF ASSASSINATION ON PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN AND NEW SITUATION OF SEN EDWARD KENNEDY AS BEARER OF FAMILY'S POLITICAL FORTUNES.

10. FURTHER REACTIONS WILL BE REPORTED BY AIRGRAM UNLESS ESPECIALLY NOTEWORTHY. ROUNTREE

JOINT EMBASSY/USIS MESSAGE

1. THE DEATH OF SENATOR KENNEDY ECLIPSED ALL OTHER SUBJECTS IN THE GERMAN PRESS TODAY AND ON RADIO AND TELEVISION YESTERDAY. "THE WORLD MOURNS KENNEDY," WAS THE HEADLINE DOMINATING THIS MORNING'S FRONTPAGES. TIME DIFFERENTIAL DID NOT PERMIT THE PRESS TO REPORT SENATOR KENNEDY'S DEATH EARLIER.
2. SOME RADIO AND TELEVISION CORRESPONDENTS, REPORTING FROM LOS ANGELES, COULD HARDLY CONTROL THEIR EMOTIONS. GERD RUGE, FOR INSTANCE, FIRST CHANNEL'S U.S. BUREAU CHIEF, WAS SO OVERCOME THAT HE HAD TO STRUGGLE FOR NEARLY TEN MINUTES BEFORE HE COULD GET HIS VOICE UNDER CONTROL. RUGE NARRATED A HALF-HOUR, SPECIAL REVIEW OF THE CAREER OF SENATOR KENNEDY. SECOND CHANNEL ALSO PROGRAMMED A HALF HOUR KENNEDY MEMORIAL SHOW.
3. LOCALLY, TELCISION CONCENTRATED ON INTERVIEW WITH PROMINENT GERMANS COMMENTING ON THE SENATOR'S DEATH. SECOND CHANNEL CARRIED A STATEMENT BY AMBASSADOR LODGE, COVERED THE LOWERING OF THE FLAG AT THE AMERICAN EMBASSY, AND PEOPLE SIGNING THE CONDELENCE BOOK, RADIO COVERAGE FOLLOWED SIMILAR LINES.
4. MOST OF THE PRESS WAS QUICK TO PICK UP PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S TELEVISION APPEAL TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE TO ABIDE BY THE RULE OF LAW. EDITORIAL OPINIONS FOLLOWED ALONG YESTERDAY'S LINES. MANY EDITORIALS SEEMED TO ASK QUESTIONS RATHER THAN EXPRESS OPINIONS. AND AGAIN THERE WERE UNDERTONES WHICH PUT INTO QUESTION AMERICA'S LEASERSHIP BECAUSE OF "INABILITY TO COPE WITH DOMESTIC PROBLEMS."
5. DUESSELDORF'S HANDELSBLATT, FOR INSTANCE, CONCENTRATED ON THE INTERNATIONAL EFFECT OF THE KENNEDY DEATH. THE PAPER THINKS THAT THE SENATOR'S DEATH IMPLIES FAILURE OF THE U.S. GOVERNMENT

AND ITS AUTHORITY. "...THIS IS A FACT OF INTERNATIONAL IMPORTANCE. AMERICA'S INTERNAL WEAKNESS AND LOSS OF PRESTIGE MIGHT PRODUCE AN IMPACT EVEN IN THE REMOTEST CORNERS OF THE GLOBE...THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS CONFRONTED WITH THE NECESSITY OF CONCENTRATING MORE THAN BEFORE ON ITS OWN COUNTRY. CONSEQUENTLY, EUROPE WILL HAVE TO CONCENTRATE ON ITS PROBLEMS, WITH EUROPEAN COOPERATION BECOMING MORE IMPRTANT THAN EVER BEFORE."

HANDELSBALATT ALSO FEARS THAT THE KENNEDY ASSASINATION MIGHT HAVE AN IMPACT ON THE VIET NAM TALKS.

6. FRANKFURTER ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG VOICES SIMILAR APPREHENSIONS WHEN IT SAYS, "...AS LONG AS THE DOMESTIC AMERICAN SCENE REMAINS UNCLEAR THE PARIS NEGOTIATIONS WILL REMAIN DEADLOCKED WHILE FIGHTING IN VIET NAM WILL BE STEPPED UP. OF ALL POLITITICAL CONSEQUENCES OF THE KENNEDY SLAYING, THIS IS THE MOST UNFORTUNATE."

7. MUENCHNER MERKUR TAKES A MORE OPTIMISTIC VIEW. IT BELIEVES THAT THOUGH THE KENNEDYS HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO ATTAIN THEIR GOALS, "...THEY HAVE MADE AN IMPACT ON MANKIND'S DREAM - ETERNAL PEACE."

8. RHEINISCHE POST WARNS OF OVERSIMPLIFICATION AND HASTY CONCLUSIONS DRAWN FROM THE KENNEDY TRAGEDY. "VIOLENCE," THE PAPER SAYS, "NO LONGER HAS EASILY RECOGNIZABLE ROOTS...IT PERVADES ALL GROUPS, NATIONS AND CLASSES, PROGRESSIVES AND REACTIONARIES..."

9. SUEDEDEUTSCHE ZEITUNG FEELE THAT THE KENNEDY LEGACY WILL BE THE NEXT PRESIDENT'S MOST DIFFICULT TASK, NAMELY TO "RENEW IN THE NEGORES, THE POOR OF ALL COLORS, AND THE YOUNG...A FAITH IN THEIR COUNTRY AND A PRIDE IN CTS DEMOCTRATIC TRADITIONS..."

10. FRANKFURTER RUNDSCHAU'S MANAGING EDITOR ADMONISHES THE U.S. TO REEXAMINE ITS ENTIRE SOCIAL STRUCTURE. HE USES THIS OCCASION TO VIOCE HOSTILITY TO FREE ENTERPRISE AND WHAT HE FEELS IS ITS INCLUENCE OVER THE CONGRESS. "...WHAT KIND OF A CONTRY IS IT THAT UNTIL NOW COULD NOT PASS A LAW TO CONTROL THE POSSESSION OF ARMS? THE POWER OF THE BUSINESS LOBBIES AND OTHER INTERESTS IS TOO STRONG. THE IDOL OF FREE ENTERPRISE IS BECOMING A MONSTER WHICH IS THREATENING SOCIETY..."

11. DIE WELT'S WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT HEINZ BARTH WRITES THAT THE KENNEDY ASSASSINATION HAS THROWN THE U.S. INTO A DEEP ABYSS OF NATIONAL CRISES. HE EXPRESSES THE HOPE THAT THIS WILL BE THE SIGNAL TO REVERSE THE TREND OF VIOLENCE.

12. STUTTGARTER EITUNG EMPHASIZES THAT THE REPLY TO VIOLENCE MUST NOT BE RESIGNATION OR APATHY, "INSTEAD, THE KENNEDY

ASSASSINATION COMPELS THE FREE WORLD TO RETURN TO THE PRINCIPLES OF HUMANITY AND STRICT ADHERENCE TO LAW."

13. WESTDEUTSCHE ALLGEMEINE ZEITUNG COMPARES THE KENNEDY TRAGEDY WITH THE SHOOTING OF RUDI DUTSCHKE IN BERLIN TO SHOW THAT EXTREMIST EXCESSES CAN OCCUR ANYWHERE. THE PAPER EMPHATICALLY CALLS FOR A RETURN TO REASON AND ABSTENTION FROM VIOLENCE.

14. REJECTION AND CONDEMNATION OF VIOLENCE IS PROBABLY THE MOST COMMON REACTION THROUGHOUT GERMANY. THERE WAS A NOTICEABLE ATTEMPT TODAY NOT TO SINGLE OUT THE UNITED STATES, BUT RATHER TO POINT TO A GENERAL DETERIORATION IN WORLD MORALITY LEADING TO VIOLENCE. THE IDENTITY AND PRESUMED MOTIVE OF THE ASSASSIN WAS FAIRLY WIDELY COVERED IN TODAY'S PRESS.

15. MANY COMMUNITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS MOURN KENNEDY'S DEATH. THE FLAG FLIES AT HALF FROM BONN'S CITY HALL. BERLINERS HAVE STAGED A SILENT TORCHLIGHT PARADE, AND MUNICH ORGANIZATIONS ARE PREPARING FOR A MARCH OF MOURNING DURING THE WEEKEND.

REACTION TO KENNEDY ASSISINATION

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF SENATOR ROBERT KENNEDY'S DEATH WAS IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWED BY SINGLE PAGE NEWS SUPPLEMENTS DISTRIBUTED FREE BY THE TWO MAJOR LOCAL NEWSPAPERS, NUMEROUS TELEPHONE CALLS TELEGRAMS AND LETTERS OF CONDOLENCE. AMONG THESE WERE LETTERS FROM BURGERMEISTER HANS KOSCHNICK, THE PRESIDENT OF THE BREMEN BURGERSCHAFT AND A JOINT TELEGRAM FROM THE SPD BURGERSCHAFT FRAKTION AND THE LAND PARTY ORGANIZATION. IN ADDITION THERE HAS BEEN A MODERATE TO HEAVY TRAFFIC OF PERSONS COMING TO THE CONGEN TO SIGN CONDOLENCE BOOK.

AMONG THE FIRST TO SIGN THE CONDOLENCE BOOK WAS BURGERMEISTER KOSCHNICK WHO FOLLOWED THE SIGNING WITH A CALL ON THE CONSUL IN CHARGE. THERE FOLLOWED A HALF HOUR CONVERSATION ON WHAT MIGHT BE CALLED "THE STATE OF THE NATION. KOSCHNICK WAS OBVIOUSLY PERSONALLY DISTURBED BY THE SENATOR'S DEATH AND BY WHAT HE THOUGHT IT PORTENDED FOR THE U.S., GERMANY AND THE WORLD. HE FREELY CREDITED THE US FOR IMPARTING DEMOCRACY TO THE FRG AND STATED THAT ALTHOUGH IT WAS, AND STILL IS, FAR FROM PERFECT HE AND MANY GERMANS FELT THAT THE AMERICAN MODEL HELD BEFORE THEM SERVED AS A GOAL TOWARD WHICH THEY COULD WORK. DURING THE INTERVENING YEARS HOWEVER HE HAD BECOME INCREASINGLY DISAPPOINTED WITH AMERICA'S SEEMING INABILITY TO SOLVE ITS PROBLEMS AND BRING FULL DEMOCRACY TO ITS OWN PEOPLE. HIS DISPAIR GAVE WAY TO HOPE DURING THE PRESIDENCY OF JOHN KENNEDY BUT AFTER HIS DEATH THOUGHT THAT AMERICA WAS AGAIN LOSING ITS SENSE OF

DIRECTION AND MOMENTUM. HE THOUGHT THAT ROBERT KENNEDY WAS THE ONE MAN WHO COULD SAVE AMERICA AND NOW HE TOO WAS DEAD. THE CONGEN OFFICER POINTED OUT THAT ALTHOUGH THE DECEASED SENATOR WAS INDEED AN IRREPARABLE LOSS FOR AMERICA, THE OTHER LEADING CANDIDATES OF BOTH PARTIES, IN ESSENCE, SHARED HIS GOALS FOR AMERICA. THOUGH THEY MAY NOT BE ABLE TO EMULATE HIS PARTICULAR STYLE OF LEADERSHIP, THEY NEVERTHELESS, IN THEIR OWN WAY, CAN STILL ATTAIN THESE GOALS. WITHOUT ATTEMPTING TO DISPUTE THE ABOVE, KOSCHNICK APPARENTLY REMAINS CONVINCED THAT ROBERT KENNEDY HAD BEEN DESTINED TO PLAY A UNIQUE ROLE ON THIS EARTH AND WITH HIS DEATH IT WILL REMAIN UNPLAYED. KOSCHNICK CONCLUDED HIS VISIT, HOWEVER, WITH THE HOPE THAT AMERICA WILL SOLVE ITS DOMESTIC PROBLEMS AND THEREBY REGAIN ITS FORMER STATURE. OTHERWISE, HE FELT THERE WOULD BE LITTLE HOPE FOR GERMANY, OR EVENTUALLY, FOR PEACE IN THE WORLD. ELLISON

SUBJECT: Anti-Arab Sentiment in the Wake of Kennedy's Assassination

You are probably aware that there is concern that we are going to face a rise in anti-Arab feeling in the country because of Senator Kennedy's assassination.

This stems mainly from Sirhan's Jordanian origin, but there have also been a few unfortunate Arab statements tending to approve of the incident. On the whole, however, the Arabs have deplored the event and there is no evidence of a Near Eastern conspiracy. There has even been pro-Kennedy commentary out of Damascus. King Hussein has sent his condolences to the family and the Jordanian Embassy has released a statement, but so far the other Arab governments have done little or nothing.

State is thinking about asking the Jordanians to get the other Arabs to say something helpful, but the press hasn't given much attention to what the Jordanians have already done. The US Government can take the line that this was the act of one man, not all the Arabs but ultimately it will depend on the good sense of the reporters to keep the Arab aspects of the incident in proportion.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Attendance of Foreign Representatives at Kennedy Funeral

Nick Katzenbach has worked out with the Kennedy family the response to be made by our representatives abroad if asked by foreign governments whether they can send special representatives to attend Senator Kennedy's funeral.

Paragraph 3 of the attached draft telegram authorizes our Ambassadors to say that the United States would receive from each country one foreign special representative at the Parliamentary and Ministerial level.

I recommend that you approve this instruction which will be sent immediately to our Embassies. There is some urgency in deciding this question. The British Prime Minister has already raised the subject with Ambassador Bruce.

Subject: Kennedy Funeral and Interment

1. As of noon Washington time, June 6, following are plans for funeral and interment of Senator Robert F. Kennedy:

(a) The Senator's body will lie in St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City from 8:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m. EDT, Friday, June 7.

(b) Funeral services will be held in St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City at 10:00 a. m. EDT Saturday morning, June 8.

(c) Following funeral services, body will be taken from New York to Washington by special train, arriving approximately 4:00 p. m. EDT.

(d) After procession, burial will be at Arlington Cemetery at approximately 5-5:30 p. m. EDT, Saturday, June 8.

2. Invitations will be limited to two attendees for each country desiring to have representatives attend funeral. Space in Cathedral will be severely limited, and it will not be possible to assure attendance of additional representatives. We assume most governments will designate its regular member of diplomatic corps here and/or chief representatives at UN to attend.

3. Special representatives from abroad -- We have received indications from a few countries that they will send special representatives to the funeral. If asked -- REPEAT -- if asked by host government concerning level of such representatives, you are authorized to say that a Parliamentary or Ministerial level representative would be appropriate. At same time you should indicate severe space problem described above and note difficulty if more than one representative is designated in addition to Ambassador to US and UN Rep. in assuring their attendance at services.

4. Burial at Arlington will be open to the public and there will be a less stringent limit on other country representation at burial. Transportation will be provided for diplomatic and special representatives to and from New York City and Washington on June 8.

5. Social functions scheduled by mission and mission attendance at social functions of host government and others should be limited, through Sunday, June 9, in discretion of Ambassador. Many social functions in Washington have been cancelled but others which have important official purposes are proceeding on schedule.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

This is a time of tragedy and loss. Senator Robert Kennedy is dead.

Robert Kennedy affirmed this country -- affirmed the essential decency of its people, their longing for peace, their desire to improve conditions of life for all.

During his life, he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy.

Yet he never abandoned his faith in America. He never lost his confidence in the spiritual strength of ordinary men and women. He believed in the capacity of the young for excellence --- and in the right of the old and poor to a life of dignity.

Our public life is diminished by his loss.

Mrs. Johnson and I extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kennedy and his family. I have issued a proclamation calling upon our nation to observe a day of mourning for Robert Kennedy.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES:

A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigor of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.

The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world.

This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity.

NOW, THEREOFRE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States, do call upon all Americans to observe Sunday next, the ninth day of June, as a day of national mourning in his memory throughout the United States. In our churches, in our homes, and in our hearts let us resolve before God and before each other that the purpose of progress and justice for which Robert F. Kennedy lived shall endure.

I direct that until interment the flag of the United States shall be flown at half-staff on all building, grounds and naval vessels of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia and throughout the United States and its Territories and possessions.

I also direct that the flag shall be flown at half-staff for the same length of time at all United States embassies, legations, consular offices, and other facilities abroad, including all military facilities and naval vessels and stations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second.

6:45 George Christian issued the following statement by the President:

"There are no words equal to the horror of this tragedy. Our thoughts and our prayers are with Senator Kennedy, his family and the other victims.

All America prays for his recovery. We also pray that divisiveness and violence be driven from the hearts of men everywhere."

Christian also made the following statements:

The President was notified of Senator Kennedy having been shot at 3:31 EST by Special Assistant Walt Rostow, who had been called immediately by the White House Situation Room as first reports were received.

The President has been up since then, talking three times with the Attorney General, twice with Secret Service Director Jim Rowley, with Secretary of Defense Clark Clifford, and with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The President has asked that a protective U. S. Secret Service Detail be placed with each Presidential candidate and with their family. There is no authorizing legislation for this action, but the President has asked that this be done.

The President has directed the FBI to assist with supplying manpower if necessary to supplement the Secret Service details.

The President also talked this morning with Senator Monroney, Senator Dirksen, Sen Mansfield and Congressman Tom Steed of Oklahoma. The President advised these members of Congress of the actions he had taken in placing Secret Service details with each of the Presidential candidates and discussed the need for authorizing legislation to follow up this action.

MOSCOW ON KENNEDY SHOOTING

MOSCOW DOMESTIC SERVICE IN RUSSIAN 1200 GMT 5 JUN 68 L

(TEXT) ANOTHER POLITICAL CRIME HAS BEEN COMMITTED IN THE UNITED STATES, THE COUNTRY WHICH BOASTS ABOUT ITS DEMOCRACY, ITS SYSTEM--THE SYSTEM OF FREE ENTERPRISE. THE ASSASSINATION ATTEMPT IN LOS ANGELES WAS POSSIBLE BECAUSE OF THE IRRESPONSIBLE CONNIVANCE ON THE PART OF THE AUTHORITIES AND THE NOTORIOUS FREEDOM OF A CAPITALIST SOCIETY, THE FREEDOM TO KILL.

IT IS NOTEWORTHY THAT THE EXTREME RIGHTWING FORCES IN THE UNITED STATES ENJOY THE SUPPORT OF THE REACTIONARY RULING CIRCLES IN WASHINGTON AND EXERT A GROWING INFLUENCE ON THE POLITICAL LIFE OF THE COUNTRY. THEY OPPOSE THE GRANTING OF EQUAL CIVIL RIGHTS TO THE NEGRO POPULATION. THEY ARE IN FAVOR OF A MILITARIZATION OF THE COUNTRY AND OF THE ARMS RACE, TO PLEASE MONOPOLISTIC CAPITAL. THE HAWKS DEMAND AN EXTENSION OF THE WAR IN VIETNAM, THREATENING THOSE WHO DISSENT FROM THEM WITH PUNISHMENTS AND AT TIMES USE THE SERVICES OF PAID ASSASSINS. THIS HAPPENED IN NOVEMBER 1963, WHEN PRESIDENT KENNEDY WAS KILLED IN DALLAS. THIS HAPPENED ON 4 APRIL THIS YEAR WHEN MARTIN LUTHER KING WAS KILLED IN MEMPHIS. THIS IS HAPPENING TODAY, IN BOSTON, AT THE SHAMEFUL TRIAL OF FIVE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE U.S. INTELLIGENTSIA LED BY BENJAMIN SPOCK, WHO OPENLY OPPOSED THE AGGRESSION IN INDOCHINA.

OFFICE OF THE WHITE HOUSE PRESS SECRETARY

THE WHITE HOUSE

STATEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT
ON THE SHOOTING OF
SENATOR ROBERT F. KENNEDY
THE FISH ROOM

AT 10:07 P.M. EDT

My fellow citizens, I speak to you this evening not only as your President, but as a fellow American who is shocked and dismayed, as you are, by the attempt on Senator Kennedy's life, deeply disturbed, as I know you are, by lawlessness and violence in our country, of which this tragedy is the latest spectacular example.

We do not know the reasons that inspired the attack on Senator Kennedy. We know only that a brilliant career of public service has been brutally interrupted; that a young leader of uncommon energy and dedication, who has served his country tirelessly and well, and whose voice and example have touched millions throughout the entire world, has been senselessly and horribly stricken.

At this moment, the outcome is still in the balance. We pray to God that He will spare Robert Kennedy and will restore him to full health and vigor. We pray this for the Nation's sake, for the sake of his wife and his children, his father and his mother, and in memory of his brother, our beloved late President.

The Kennedy family has endured sorrow enough, and we pray that this family may be spared more anguish.

Tonight this Nation faces once again the consequences of lawlessness, hatred and unreason in its midst. It would be wrong, it would be self-deceptive, to ignore the connection between that lawlessness and hatred and this act of violence. It would be just as wrong, and just as self-deceptive, to conclude from this act that our country itself is sick, that it has lost its balance, that it has lost its sense of direction, even its common decency.

200 million Americans did not strike down Robert Kennedy last night any more than they struck down John F. Kennedy in 1963 or Dr. Martin Luther King in April of this year.

But those awful events give us ample warning that in a climate of extremism, of disrespect for law, of contempt for the rights of others, violence may bring down the very best among us. A Nation that tolerates violence in any form cannot expect to be able to confine it to just minor outbursts.

My fellow citizens, we cannot, we just must not, tolerate the sway of violent men among us. We must not permit men who are filled with hatred, and careless of innocent lives, to dominate our streets and fill our homes with fear.

MORE

We cannot sanction the appeal to violence, no matter what its cause, no matter what the grievance from which it springs.

There is never -- and I say never -- any justification for the violence that tears at the fabric of our national life; that inspires such fear in peaceful citizens that they arm themselves with deadly weapons; that sets citizen against citizen or group against group.

A great nation can guarantee freedom for its people and the hope of progressive change only under the rule of law. So let us, for God's sake, resolve to live under the law.

Let us put an end to violence and to the preaching of violence.

Let the Congress pass laws to bring the insane traffic in guns to a halt, as I have appealed to them time and time again to do. That will not, in itself, end the violence, but reason and experience tell us that it will slow it down; that it will spare many innocent lives.

Let us purge the hostility from our hearts and let us practice moderation with our tongues.

Let us begin in the aftermath of this great tragedy to find a way to reverence life, to protect it, to extend its promise to all of our people.

This Nation and its people have suffered grievously from violence and assassination. For this reason, I am appointing, with the recommendation of the Leadership of the Congress -- with whom I have talked this evening -- a commission of most distinguished Americans to immediately examine this tragic phenomenon. They are:

- Dr. Milton Eisenhower, the former distinguished President of Johns Hopkins University.
- Archbishop Terrence Cook of New York.
- Albert E. Jenner, Jr., of Illinois.
- Ambassador Patricia Harris.
- Mr. Eric Hoffer.
- Senator Philip A. Hart.
- Senator Roman Hruska.
- Congressman Hale Boggs.
- Congressman William McCulloch.
- Judge Leon Higginbotham.

MORE

The commission will look into the causes, the occurrence and the control of physical violence across this Nation, from assassination that is motivated by prejudice and by ideology, and by politics and by insanity, to violence in our cities' streets and even in our homes.

What in the nature of our people and the environment of our society makes possible such murder and such violence?

How does it happen? What can be done to prevent assassination? What can be done to further protect public figures? What can be done to eliminate the basic causes of these aberrations?

Supported by the suggestions and recommendations of criminologists, sociologists and psychologists, all of our Nation's medical and social sciences, we hope to learn why we inflict such suffering on ourselves. I hope and pray that we can learn how to stop it.

This is a sober time for our great democracy, but we are a strong and we are a resilient people who can, I hope, learn from our misfortunes, who can heal our wounds, who can build and find progress in public order.

We can. We must.

So I appeal to every American citizen tonight:
Let us begin tonight.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES:

A noble and compassionate leader, a good and faithful servant of the people, in the full vigor of his promise, lies dead from an assassin's bullet.

The tragedy and the senseless violence of Robert F. Kennedy's death casts a deep shadow of grief across America and across the world.

This is a moment for all Americans to join hands and walk together through this dark night of common anguish into a new dawn of healing unity.

NOW, THEREOFRE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States, do call upon all Americans to observe Sunday next, the ninth day of June, as a day of national mourning in his memory throughout the United States. In our churches, in our homes, and in our hearts let us resolve before God and before each other that the purpose of progress and justice for which Robert F. Kennedy lived shall endure.

I direct that until interment the flag of the United States shall be flown at half-staff on all building, grounds and naval vessels of the Federal Government in the District of Columbia and throughout the United States and its Territories and possessions.

I also direct that the flag shall be flown at half-staff for the same length of time at all United States embassies, legations, consular offices, and other facilities abroad, including all military facilities and naval vessels and stations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this sixth day of June, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-eight and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second.

THE WHITE HOUSE

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

This is a time of tragedy and loss. Senator Robert Kennedy is dead.

Robert Kennedy affirmed this country -- affirmed the essential decency of its people, their longing for peace, their desire to improve conditions of life for all.

During his life, he knew far more than his share of personal tragedy.

Yet he never abandoned his faith in America. He never lost his confidence in the spiritual strength of ordinary men and women. He believed in the capacity of the young for excellence -- and in the right of the old and poor to a life of dignity.

Our public life is diminished by his loss.

Mrs. Johnson and I extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Kennedy and his family. I have issued a proclamation calling upon our nation to observe a day of mourning for Robert Kennedy.
