Lady Bird Johnson’s Pre-Presidential Office Files

Scope and content note:

This collection contains the working files of Lady Bird Johnson during her time as wife to Texas Senator and then Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson. It includes correspondence, memorandums, invitations, handwritten notes, lists, clippings, and itineraries reflecting Lady Bird Johnson’s role as an active political wife responding to constituent mail, graduation and wedding announcements, and other public and personal correspondence.

There is also material such as menus, guest lists, and other planning material associated with the entertaining of various foreign visitors and other political and public figures from Washington, D.C. social life in the 1950s and 1960s. Some of the typical events she hosted include luncheons, dinners, teas, and other parties.

The collection also contains schedules and lists associated with Lady Bird Johnson’s travel in which she accompanied Vice President Johnson, including trips to Mexico, Europe, and Benelux countries.

There is also correspondence associated with campaign events Lady Bird Johnson participated in during the 1960 presidential campaign.

- Date range of collection: 1960 – 1963 (dates approximate)
- 8 linear feet
- Available for research
