Dear Lyndon -

I found the enclosed note while cleaning up the attic. You evidently prized it so I am returning it to you -

Marnie S. Kleberg.

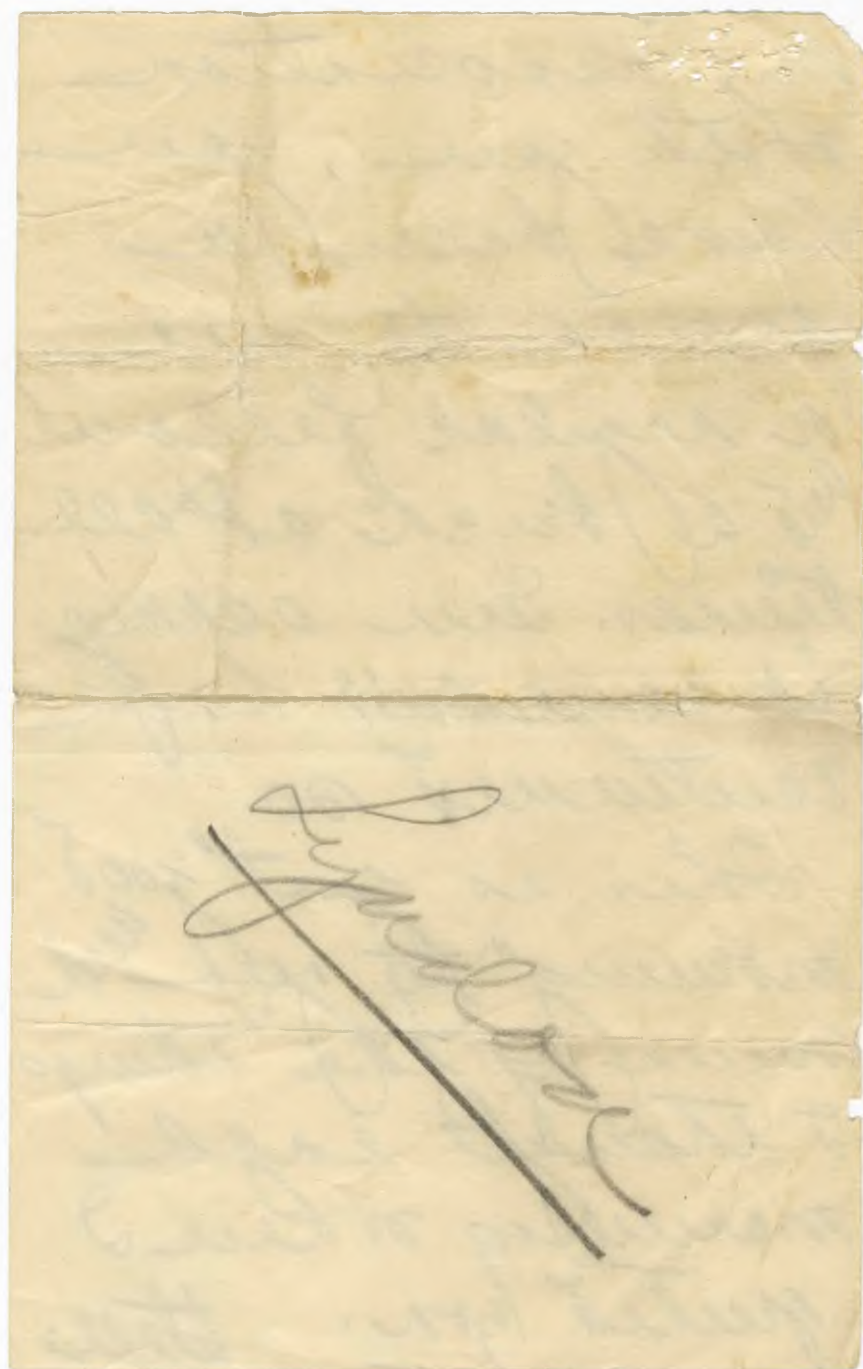

Lynne -

I just wanted this little note to greet you, since I can't. I can not tell you how dear you have been to me - I only hope as we go through the years I can be of small measure good to it.

I have been most happy in my association with you, you have been a friend to me, a regular fellow and a buck at all times. I'm sorry it couldn't have continued so.

This is just "good morning" to you ^{and} some of the things I thought said morning when I greeted you. Still get himself in hand.

He asked about you the first thing, & broke down & cried when he said he had not written you because every time he tried to write it would bring ~~every~~ ^{all} this up & he would go all to pieces. He is so appreciative of all you have done and could not love you more if you were his own son. And I feel just like he does, Lyndon. If you had not been in California the

Sunday

Dear Lyndon -

The trip through Texas was terrible & I was exhausted when I arrived this morning but I am so thankful I came.

Mr. Klueber was on the edge of a nervous breakdown and I do not believe he could have held out much longer. Every-thing is alright now and I am sure he will night I went all to pieces I knew I would have done something desperate. But all of that is behind us, thanks God, and we will all three try to make something big, and worth while and beautiful of our future.

I hope things are going better down there. Can hardly wait to hear about Mr Barnett's speech.

The Washington papers this morning seem to think Congress will adjourn this week. I only hope they are right. It is not nearly as hot as I thought it would be & Mrs Adams lets me do just as I please - which has been rest all of today.

Mr Keating says every thing is all right at the office. I wish he would let me help him with his letters while I am here.

I gave him Mr Queen's message about Mr Blount. Love from us both - your other mother -

Mr Lyndon B. Johnson had made me unhappy.

I do not think ~~that~~ either of you gathered my real reason for even mentioning it - must have expressed myself badly. But I do want you to know ~~that~~ it did not worry me at all.

You see I have every confidence in Mr. Ellberg in spite of what has happened. As I told you before I left Washington, I was insane most of

Wednesday night

Dear Lyndon -

I surely appreciated your lovely letter. Am glad you are enjoying the Beveridge books. Was sure that you would.

Mr. Ellberg wrote me that you had shown him the letter. That was perfectly alright as long as it did not upset him. I was afraid he would think that it last year, but I am perfectly alright now. Am sure my physical condition was responsible, for I now see everything in an entirely different light.

In fact, I am a different person.

Please tell Mr Kleberg, that his Mother was so pleased over his letter. She 'phoned ~~him~~^{me} at once. Her Birth day is next month.
I will find out the exact date & write you so you can remind him to write her so she will get it that day.

I hope you will have some good weather so Mr Kleberg can play golf. Am sure the time is not dropping on his hands, tho.
I try to keep up with what is going on as best I can in all these papers. Know how interesting it all is for you. What about the Hamilton Case? And what do Washington people think of the demonstrations in Mexico against Daniels.

The kids are fine & send love - especially ~~the~~ your Secretary!

She is to have an Easter Party & has asked every one in town!

R. J. says to please send the brief case.

Best regards to Gene -

Affectionately,

Mamie S. Klberg.

Tuesday Morning

Dear Lyndon -

you will never know how much I appreciate your flowers and the letter. I almost broke down, but I managed to conquer my feelings for I was determined to do what I could to keep Mr Kleberg from working.

It tore my heart out of me to leave him but I knew I would never get my self straightened out up there. I was only torturing him and at times felt as if I were losing my mind.

I am afraid he is going to be terribly unhappy, Lyndon. Please stay with him as much as possible - tho I know you will do all you can for him with out my asking.

Please write me often and tell me the truth about how he is. I feel as if I had been in some horrible dream & will have to fight my way back to safety and solvity.
Our whole future is at stake and I will fight with everything in me. I do not believe that even Mr Kleberg will ever know how much I love him or what I would do for that love.

Take care of yourself and him. I am so thankful that you are with him -

Devotedly,

Marnie S. Kleberg.

Wednesday

Dear Lyndon -

Thought you and Mr. Kellberg might be interested in this article. Seems a very sensible viewpoint to me.

I have rested all day, but am still pretty tired. The excitement of seeing the birds was almost too much for me. Am sure I will be alright tomorrow.

It is wonderful to be home again. If only Mr. Kellberg & you were here it would be perfect. I miss him terribly.

Write when you can - even if it's on the typewriter! Maybe, with Katherine's help, I can manage to read it!

R. G. sends the enclosed cartoon to his Daddie -

Best regards -

Maurie S. Kellberg.

Saturday

Dear Lyndon -

Many thanks for the telegram and copy of Mr. Ellberg's letter. The position was filled yesterday.
I am thankful to say so we will not be bothered with that any more!

We are all so distressed over the death of Robert Browning, who dived in shallow water and broke his neck. He worked as hard as any one person in the district in Richard's campaign last year, and has always been one of my special favorites.

after two days rest I feel like a different person. Each day finds me able to do more + I am sure by the time you get back to Cyprus I will be able to help you fight the girls off!!!

Your post script is the only favorable news I have heard in a long time. I do hope you are right, for it cannot be "soon enough" for me!

I am sending you a box of "brownies". I hope they reach you in good shape.

Alice is so busy taking care of me she says she hasn't time to write! We have to bribe her to get her out of the room.
The other morning Dr Heaney called on me + when Alice came in and saw him she burst into tears - she thought I had had to send for him!

She asks every day -
"When is my Daddie coming?"
And so does everyone else - even the coddies out at the Club! So when you find out definitely be sure to let us know. I might bring a delegation of Beauties to S. H. to meet you!

Tell Mr Kleberg that everyone is fine here and at the Ranch. Remember me to any of my friends you may see -

affectionately,
Minnie S. Kleberg

attitude has changed. I realize that one phase of my life is definitely over, but for the sake of our children I shall go on as if nothing had happened. I have done my best to build up a new life - our future should hold happiness. One can only wait and pray.

I hesitated about telling you of the note, but was afraid that my San Antonio "friend", failing to stir up trouble at this end, might strike at Mr Kleberg through me. I

Thursday

Dear Lyndon -

I received an anonymous letter from San Antonio this morning. If only you had realized last year that Mr Kleberg was laying himself open to political black mail of the most vicious kind! Not-withstanding his enemies feel that any action on my part would discredit him, and that is what they are driving at.

Fortunately, for the sake of all concerned, my whole already know any thing they could tell me, so you can ignore any communication.

Naturally, I feel deeply humiliated over the whole thing. My one fear is that I will come to the point where I cannot carry on, even for the children.

Please do not mention this letter to Mr Kleberg - unless he should receive a similar note. I shall continue to write him as if nothing had happened. I may be wrong, and I abhor deceit, but that seems the only solution at present.

I know you have our real happiness at heart, Lyndon, and that you love Mr Kleberg dearly.
With the three of us fighting we ought to accomplish something.

Affectionately,

Mossie S. Kleberg.

need one of us with them, I felt very selfish over staying so long.

They are terribly disappointed over not seeing their Daddy, but personally I had much rather he would stay on now, than have to be in Washington all summer in that terrific heat.

We listen to the news of the day over the Radio every evening. I surely hate to miss all the excitement up there. Am sure Congress will not be so interesting again for many years to

Saturday

Dear Lyndon -

Am mailing you "Beveridge and the Progress ive Era" today. It is one of the most fascinating books I have ever read. When you finish it am sure you will understand why I feel as I do about Politics! Keep it as long as you like, but do not lose it, please, as I did my first copy.

It is wonderful to be at home again with the children and when I realized how much they missed us both and how much they really come.

The local political situation here is plenty hot. Am glad Dick is so far away. Mrs Spoons + Mrs Serier have been at odds for two years over the Nueces and Plaza Hotels. Each is supporting a different candidate and it has degenerated into a very bitter, personal fight. I am keeping out of it, but I hear all three sides as the other candidate is a former member of our School Board. It is all I can do to keep a straight face.

at one time Judge Trinnor, Mrs Spoons' candidate, was almost run out of town by the Proity League. at present, Mrs Frank Thompson + Mrs Henry Redmond, leading members of said League, are holding meetings & rallies for the Judge!!

Read an editorial yesterday where Rainey took a dig at Garner - said failure of Congress last year was due to fact that the Speaker tried to run every thing, instead of the Grand old Party! How is my friend Byrne coming along? Am already planning what I will buy when I give that bet from Dick!

Saw Miss Wiggins this morning + she sent you both her best regards.

And

Saw R. King & he said to tell Dick he thought they would make things out in the Robstown farmers. Every one I see asks about both of you & sends best regards. The Mrs. Rositers specially asked to be remembered.

The kids are all fine and send love.

Who gets copies of the Records here? I want to read them for the next few weeks any way. P. King did get some, but said he wrote Dick to discontinue.

Best regards to you & Miss? (I never could remember names.

I hope Dick can get in some golf. I am going to play every day, so I will not only be able to beat him at golf, but on the "roll" issue, too!!!

Let me know if any of them make extra big fools of themselves!
And be sure to let me know where I can get a record!

affectionately,
Maurie S. Kleberg

Sunday

Dear Lyndon -

I am so glad Mr Kleberg decided to stay over. He has been to Mexico five times now, and the past three days are the first trips he has ever taken out of the City. I have never seen such gorgeous scenery and so many interesting places. Will have to wait to see you to tell you all about it. He has been as fascinated as I am by it all.

We will probably leave Wednesday, but do not expect us until you get a wire. Will send one the night before we leave.

I have sent word to Lorenzo

I am sure you understood that I want you to stay at the house until we move in, Lyndon. I will appreciate it a lot, for I would hate to leave it alone at night as I did not put up any of my things -

by Mary Etta to clean up the house.
Will you please give the enclosed to Fabian for me?

Do you want me to help you find a room when I get back?
Am sure we can find a nice one in the neighborhood. I want to get the house running by next Monday if possible - tho I am not going to be in any terrible rush about it.

Am getting homesick for all my children - and you know that includes you!
Hope they haven't worried you too hard!

We didn't get to see the opening of Congress after all. Waited all day on Mr Ruiz & he never showed up!
Several other people offered Dick tickets. This "matana" business down here is maddening! Love from us both - M. S. Keeley.
