You will note from the attached that we must file an expense account thirty days before the election, twelve days before the election, and ten days after the election.

Won't you keep these forms readily available and also look into the expenditure limitations. Will see you before we have to file the first statement. If not, you and John work it up and remind me of it over the phone.

ELECTION EXPENDITURES AND REQUIRED REPORTS

Federal Regulations

Section 246 of Title 2 U.S.C.A. provides as follows:

STATEMENTS BY CANDIDATES FOR SENATOR, REPRESENTATIVE, DELEGATE, OR RESIDENT COMMISSIONER FILED WITH SECRETARY OF SENATE AND CLERK OF HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. (a) Every candidate for Senator shall file with the Secretary and every candidate for Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner shall file with the Clerk not less than ten nor more than fifteen days before, and also within thirty days after, the date on which an election is to be held, a statement containing, complete as of the day next preceding the date of filing--

(1) A correct and itemized account of each contribution received by him or by any person for him with his knowledge or consent, from any source, in aid or support of his candidacy for election, or for the purpose of influencing the result of the election, together with the name of the person who has made such contribution;

(2) A correct and itemized account of each expenditure made by him or by any person for him with his knowledge or consent, in aid or support of his candidacy for election, or for the purpose of influencing the result of the election, together with the name of the person to whom such expenditure was made; except that only the total sum of expenditures for items specified in subdivision (c) of section 248 of this title need be stated;

(3) A statement of every promise or pledge made by him or by any person for him with his consent, prior to the closing of the polls on the day of the election, relative to the appointment or recommendation for appointment of any person to any public or private position or employment for the purpose of procuring support in his candidacy, and the name, address, and occupation of every person to whom any such promise or pledge has been made, together with the description of any such position. If no such promise or pledge has been made, that fact shall be specifically stated.

(b) The statements required to be filed by subdivision (a) shall be cumulative, but where there has been no change in an item reported in a previous statement only the amount need be carried forward.

(c) Every candidate shall inclose with his first statement a report, based upon the records of the proper State official, stating the total number of votes cast for all candidates for the office which the candidate seeks, at the general election next preceding the election at which he is a candidate. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, Sec. 8, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, Sec. 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, Sec. 307, 43 Stat. 1072.).

Section 247 of Title 2 U.S.C.A. specifies the necessary verification and filing of the statement required by Section 246 as follows:

STATEMENTS; VERIFICATION; FILING; PRESERVATION; INSPECTION. A statement required by this chapter to be filed by a candidate or treasurer of a political committee or other person with the Clerk or Secretary, as the case may be--

(a) Shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the person filing such statement, taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths;

(b) Shall be deemed properly filed when deposited in an established post office within the prescribed time, duly stamped, registered, and directed to the Clerk or Secretary at Washington, District of Columbia, but in the event it is not received, a duplicate of such statement shall be promptly filed upon notice by the Clerk or Secretary of its non-receipt;

(c) Shall be preserved by the Clerk or Secretary for a period of two years from the date of filing, shall constitute a part of the public records of his office, and shall be open to public inspection. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, Sec. 8, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, C. 33, Sec. 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, Sec. 308, 43 Stat. 1072.).

In addition to the above we have certain provisions of the State law which require reports to be made on the part of a candidate and his campaign manager. Article 269 of the Penal Code of Texas requires the following statement and report:

SWORN STATEMENT

Each candidate for nomination in a primary election and every campaign manager or assistant campaign manager for any such candidate is hereby required to keep an accurate record of all funds received and disbursed for campaign purposes, which record shall be preserved for a period of twelve months, and shall be open to inspection of all opposing candidates and qualified voters, and every candidate and campaign manager is hereby required to file a sworn statement of all monies previously received or disbursed by him, including money borrowed and liabilities incurred but not paid, not more than thirty nor less than twenty-five days prior to the date of the primary election, and not more than twelve nor less than eight days prior to the date of the primary election. Each such statement shall include all items contained in all statements previously made in accordance with the requirements of this article if any, and shall include the names of all contributors to any campaign fund handled by the party making the same, and the names of all persons from whom any money has been received or from whom any money has been borrowed for such fund, and the names of all persons to whom disbursements exceeding ten dollars in amount have been made and the purposes of such disbursements. Such statement shall also set forth that it is as full and explicit as the party making it is able to make, and the party making it shall before some officer qualified to administer oaths, take and subscribe the following oath, which shall be filed with said statement.

"I do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement filed herewith correctly shows all moneys received by me and disbursed by me or in my behalf or with my knowledge or consent through or by any other person in connection with the candidacy of.....for the nomination for..... before the primary election, and that I have neither directly or indirectly arranged or assented to, encouraged or connived at the spending of any money other than as shown in said statement, and that I have not violated any provision of the laws of Texas, governing primary elections of the expenditure of funds in connection with a candidacy for a nomination in such primary election in letter or in spirit."

Such statements and oaths shall be filed within the times required by this article by candidates for State and District nominations and their campaign managers with the Secretary of State, and by candidates for County nominations and their campaign managers and by the assistant campaign managers of candidates for State and District nominations with the County Clerk of the County in which they reside.

Whoever shall wilfully and corruptly make any false oath, affidavit or sworn statements in complying with the requirements of this article shall be fined not to exceed $1000.00 or be confined in jail for not more than one year, or both, or be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. (Sec. 8, Id.)

LIMITATION ON EXPENDITURES

Section 248 of Title 2 U.S.C.A. provides the following limitation on expenditures by candidates:

LIMITATION UPON AMOUNT OF EXPENDITURES BY CANDIDATE.

(a) A candidate, in his campaign for election, shall not make expenditures in excess of the amount which he may lawfully make under the laws of the State in which he is a candidate, nor in excess of the amount which he may lawfully make under the provisions of this title.

(b) Unless the laws of his State prescribe a less amount as the maximum limit of campaign expenditures, a candidate may make expenditures up to--

(1) The sum of $10,000 if a candidate for Senator, or the sum of $2,500 if a candidate for Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner; or

(2) An amount equal to the amount obtained by multiplying three cents by the total number of votes cast at the last general election for all candidates for the office which the candidate seeks, but in no event exceeding $25,000 if a candidate for Senator or $5,000 if a candidate for Representative, Delegate, or Resident Commissioner.

(c) Money expended by a candidate to meet and discharge any assessment, fee or charge made or levied upon candidates by the laws of the State in which he resides, or expended for his necessary personal, traveling, or subsistence expenses, or for stationery, postage, writing, or printing (other than for use on billboards or in newspapers), for distributing letters, circulars, or posters, or for telegraph or telephone service, shall not be included in determining whether his expenditures have exceeded the sum fixed by paragraph (1) or (2) of subdivision (b) as the limit of campaign expenses of a candidate. (June 25, 1910, c. 392, Sections 8, 9, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 19, 1911, c. 33, Sec. 2, 37 Stat. 26; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 349, 37 Stat. 360; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title III, Sec. 309, 43 Stat. 1073.)

Art. 3170 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, places a limitation upon the amount which can be spent in a campaign as follows:

LIMITING EXPENDITURES

No candidate for any nomination to be determined by primary election and no campaign manager for such candidate shall himself or by or through any other person or persons, or on behalf of any other person or persons, directly or indirectly, give, pay or expend any money or pay or give anything of value or promise to give, pay or expend any money or to pay or to give anything of value, or authorize any expenditure or assume any pecuniary liability in furthering or opposing the candidacy of any persons for any nomination to be determined by a primary election in this State, except for the following purposes only, to-wit:

1. For the traveling expenses of the candidate, or of his campaign manager or assistant campaign manager as defined by this chapter, or of a secretary for such candidate.

2. The payment of fees or charges for placing the name of the candidate upon the primary ballot, and for holding and making returns of the election.

3. The hire of clerks and stenographers and the cost of clerical and stenographic work and of addressing, preparing and mailing campaign literature.

4. Telegraph and telephone tolls, postage, freight and express charges.

5. Printing and stationery.

6. Procuring and formulating lists of voters.

7. Headquarters or office rent.

8. Newspaper and other advertising and publicity.

9. Renting of halls or providing places for public meetings and all expenses of advertising and other expenses usually incident to holding such meetings.

No expenditures authorized by this article may lawfully be made or authorized or liability therefor incurred by any person other than a candidate himself, or his lawfully designated campaign manager or assistant campaign manager, or by some clerk or other agent lawfully authorized, in writing, by a campaign manager or assistant campaign manager, provided that no campaign manager or assistant campaign manager shall have more than one person so authorized to act for him at the same time.

The expenditure of any money or the giving, paying or promising to give or pay any money or anything of value, directly or indirectly by any candidate for nomination or by any campaign manager or assistant campaign manager or any authorized clerk or other employe of such campaign manager or assistant campaign manager, in furthering or opposing the candidacy of any person for nomination in a primary election, except in the manner and for the purposes authorized by the provisions of this article is expressly prohibited, and the total amount expended and authorized for these purposes and for any and all purposes connected with furthering or opposing the candidacy of any person for a nomination to be determined by a primary election by any candidate or campaign manager, shall not exceed the following amounts for each candidate for each of the following offices, to-wit:

For United States Senator	$10,000.00
For Governor	10,000.00
For all other officers to be chosen by voters of the entire State, including Judges of Courts of Last Resort, district members of Congress, and members of Congress at large	2,500.00
For members of the Court of Civil Appeals	1,500.00
For district attorney or district judge	600.00
For member of the State Senate	1,000.00
For member of the House of Representatives	300.00
For county officers in counties having a population of 50,000 or more	750.00
For county officers in counties having a population of 30,000 or more, and less than 50,000	500.00
For county officers in counties having a popu- lation of less than 30,000	300.00
(The preceding Federal census to determine the population of a county.)

For any other position which the law may provide shall be chosen in primary election $ 100.00

Four-fifths of the sums stipulated in this article as the limits of expenses to be incurred by candidates and their campaign managers may be expended in the campaign preceding the first primary, and the remainder in the campaign preceding the second primary.

The limits fixed by this article for all State and district nominations shall include and cover all amounts expended or authorized to be expended by such candidate or his campaign manager and also all amounts paid or distributed to assistant campaign managers for use of expenditure in their respective counties. Any such assistant campaign manager may himself and through his lawfully authorized agent, expend in his county out of contributions made to the campaign fund by citizens of his county and collected by him or out of monies furnished him by the candidate or his campaign manager or from all such sources together, for lawful purposes permitted by this chapter, a sum which shall not exceed ten dollars for each one hundred qualified voters on the current poll tax list of such county, provided that such sum shall in no event exceed in the aggregate the sum of five hundred dollars for any county. The aggregate sums stipulated in this article as the maximum amounts that may be expended by candidates and their campaign managers shall be construed to embrace all expenditures herein authorized to be made in counties by assistant campaign managers. The expenditure of any money or the giving or promising to give or pay any money or any thing of value by any candidate or by any campaign manager or his clerk or agent, or assistant campaign manager or his clerk or agent in furthering of or opposition to the candidacy of any person for any nomination in a primary election in excess of the amount fixed and prescribed by this article is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful. Id.

It is specifically provided in Article 3170a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas that the amount of money paid to the State, district or county committee of any political party by any candidate for political nomination to office for the purpose of placing his name upon the primary ballot of such political party, shall not be included in the amount of money limited by law for campaign expenses.

Articles 3171 and 3172 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas contain provisions almost identical to the articles of the Penal Code Nos. 265 and 269; Article 269 is copied hereinabove.

No effort has been made here to refer to the various statutes relating to campaign contributions from specific sources. These are controlled by the Corrupt Practices Acts of both the federal and State governments. These various provisions place limitations upon the manner and sources of securing campaign contributions.

Some attention, however, should be given to Article 265 of the Penal Code and Article 3171 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, since reference is therein made to sworn receipts and disbursements. Article 265 of the Penal Code provides as follows:

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS. It shall be lawful for any person to make campaign contributions to be paid directly to the candidate or his lawfully appointed campaign manager or by citizens of any county to the lawfully designated and appointed assistant campaign manager for such county, such contributions to be used for lawful purposes. It shall be lawful for any citizens residing in any locality to raise by voluntary contributions a fund not exceeding fifty dollars for the purpose of defraying the expenses of any political meeting to be held in such locality, such expense to include the cost of advertising such meeting, or providing a place to hold the same, or providing music therefor, or the bona fide traveling expenses and hotel bills of speakers. A statement of all receipts and disbursements for such purposes signed and sworn to by the person or persons receiving and disbursing the same shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such meeting is held within twenty-four hours after it is held. It shall be lawful for any person to contribute bona fide his own personal services and personal traveling expenses, including hotel bills while traveling in the support of any candidacy. Except as expressly permitted by the foregoing provisions of this article, it shall be unlawful for any person other than candidates for nomination to be determined by primary elections or the campaign managers or assistant campaign managers of such candidate lawfully designated as provided in this chapter or the agents of such campaign managers or assistant campaign managers lawfully authorized as provided in this chapter, either himself or by or through any other person or on behalf of any other person directly or indirectly to give, pay or expend any money or give or expend any money or authorize any expenditures or assume any pecuniary liability for the purpose of aiding, or defeating or helping to defeat the nomination at any such primary election of any candidate for any nomination to be determined thereby. Any person who shall violate any provision of this article shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars or by confinement in jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, or by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years.
