PR 18-2

INSTRUCTION: Correspondence commenting on a Presidential Address, Message to Congress, or Speech is filed by /Pro or Con and subdivided by the initial of the writer.

File the President's speeches of a general nature as a case file under SP 3. Assign a consecutive number to each speech he delivers. Identify the group addressed, location, or date as appropriate. The first speech will be numbered SP 3-1; the second SP 3-2, and so on. Enter in the manual each speech number and title as assigned. For example: The President makes a speech before the DAR in Washington, D. C.; it is the 33rd speech or address that he has made since his inauguration; classify the material SP 3-33. In the file manual, under the category SP SPEECHES 3, add the number 33 directly below the number 32 and to its right add the title that is assigned to describe the speech, the group addressed, the location, or the date as appropriate. Letters congratulating the President on this speech would be classified; SP 3-33/Pro; letters criticizing the President on this speech would be classified; SP 3-33/Con.
