Scope and content note:

This collection consists of files created by John E. Robson (1966-67) and Stanford G. Ross (1967-68) related to their work as staff assistant to White House aide Joseph Califano. These papers reflect their roles and special responsibilities for areas of economic policy including wages and prices, labor-management relations, taxation, and stockpiles.

The files are divided into four series. The Pricing Files mainly concern the Lyndon B. Johnson administration's efforts to restrain price increases and limit inflation. The President's Commission on Postal Organization Files deal with the changes to the Commission's report proposed by White House aides, Joseph Califano, Stanford Ross, and Fred Bohlen. The President's National Advisory Panel on Insurance in Riot-Affected Areas Files reflect the Panel's activities of and Ross' duties as Executive Director. The President's Review Committee on Employee-Management Relations Files are related to Ross' roles and responsibilities in reviewing committee materials and briefing Califano on committee activities.
